

MAY DAY PAGEANT TO BE HELD MAY 5

ELON PLAYERS WILL PRESENT SACRED DRAMA

Production Of "The Rock" Scheduled Thursday, May 3

With the selection of committees and cast complete, the Elon Players are concluding rehearsals for the presentation of Mary Hamlin's dramatic study titled "The Rock." This production, the third of the year by the Players, will be given in Whitley Auditorium on May 3.

Under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth R. Smith, the cast is as follows: Simon, Al Burlingame; Adina, Marorie Moore; Deborah, Marie Bogue; Ucal, Earl Daniely; Mary, Esther Knuckles; Pandara, Kermit Inman; Titus, Junius Peedin; Agur, Allen Hurdle; Servants, Gene Poe, Helen Gunter, and Ed Daniel.

Bob Graham is stage manager with Gene Poe as assistant; and Kathy Young and Marjorie Simpson are in charge of properties. Costumes were made by Frances Pegram, Jane McCauley, and Charlotte Wilson. Make-up is under the supervision of Ruth Webster, Ermine Davis, and Helen Gunter. Ann Rader and Helen Newsome are in charge of tickets, and house manager is Elizabeth Brady. Tom Horner, Dale Hensley, Gene Poe and Verdalee Norris are handling the publicity. Technical advisers are Mr. McClure, Professor Hook, and members of the religion department of the college.

JEANNE HOOK HEADS IN RECITAL

The Elon College Music Department presented Miss Jeanne Hook, soprano, in graduation recital last Thursday evening at 8:15 in Whitley Auditorium. Miss Anne McClenny accompanied her at the piano.

The program was as follows: Se tu m'ami, Pergolesi; O del mio amato ben, Donaudy; Alleluia, Mozart; Cavatina, Donizetti; L'Heure Exquise, Hahn; Si mes vers avaient des ailes, Hahn; Les Filles de Cadix, Delibes; Wiegenlied, Brahms; Vergebliches Standchen, Brahms; Du bist wie eine Blume, Schuman; Shoes, Maning; Nursery Rhymes, Curran; The sleep that flits on baby's eyes, Carpenter; Do not go, my love, Hageman, and A May Morning, Denza.

Ushers were Mary Coxe, Lucille Morgan, Nell Crenshaw, and Iris Boland.

EARL FARRELL, Pittsboro, will crown the King and Queen of May at the May Day exercises next Saturday. Mr. Farrell was the May King last year and is now a student in the Divinity School of Duke University.

SUNBURN TO HEAD STUDENT-CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

MARTHA MCDANIEL TO BE VICE PRESIDENT

Jack Sunburn, rising senior ministerial student of New Britain, Conn., was elected president of the Student Christian Association for the ensuing college year at a recent meeting of that organization held in Professor Barney's classroom. Martha McDaniel, Anderson, S. C., was elected vice president, and Anne Griffin, Summerfield, secretary-treasurer.

The new president is well qualified to take over his duties. He served as vice president of the freshman Cabinet of the Student Christian Association last year and this year has been secretary of the Ministerial Association. In addition to his college work he is at present pastor of Salem Chapel, Winston-Salem; Ether Congregational Christian church, Ether; and Shady Grove Congregational Christian church, also located at Ether.

Miss McDaniel has been an active member of the Senior Cabinet, having served on the vesper's committee for the past year. Miss Griffin has been a leader in the freshman group and will carry out her new duties well.

The outgoing officers are Iris Boland, president; Elizabeth Parker, vice president; and Bob Graham, secretary-treasurer.

TWENTY INITIATED BY DELTA PSI OMEGA

Twenty students, who have starred or assisted in the production of plays, have been initiated into the Elon College cast of Delta Psi Omega, national honorary dramatic fraternity.

PANVIO LITERARY SOCIETY CONDUCTS CHAPEL ASSEMBLY

Chapel on Monday, April 30, was in charge of the Panvio Literary Society members. The program was conducted in the order of a regular Panvio meeting at which Edna Reitzel, president, presided and led the discussion of the program to be given. Through this discussion the members decided to have a talent program and the audience listened in while the various members displayed their talents. Dorothy Shepherd, Esther Knuckles, and Dale Burkhead sang and Ruth Webster and Iris Westbrook gave clever recitations. Rachel Hopkins played the piano and the meeting closed with the Panvio song.

Eliza Boyd And Gene Poe To Reign At May Festival

REGISTER IS ELECTED PRESIDENT MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION

Fred Register, a rising junior of Sanford, North Carolina, was elected president of the Ministerial Association for the coming year at the regular session of that organization on last Monday evening. Register, who was secretary-treasurer of the group during his freshman year, is a licentiate in the Western North Carolina Conference of Congregational Christian churches and at present is serving as supply pastor at Wake Chapel Christian church, near Fuquay Springs, North Carolina.

Other officers chosen were Jack Sunburn, vice president; Catherine Cooper, recording secretary; Ethalinda Griffin, corresponding secretary; Tom Horner, treasurer, and Ann Rader, pianist. President Bob Graham congratulated these officers and outlined their duties.

Plans for a weiner roast on May 7 at Moonelon were discussed. Several alumni will join in the fun and fellowship for the evening, along with the sponsors of the Association, Dr. Merton B. French and Dean D. J. Bowden.

New members welcomed into the Association, which is composed of Religion and Religious Education majors, this quarter are Hilda Neese, Ann Rader, and Hoyt Russell.

NEW STUDENT OFFICERS TO BE SWORN IN

The new officers of the student body and student government are to be sworn in at the regular student assembly on Monday morning, May 7. Jeanne Hook, outgoing president of the student body, will swear in Emerson Whatley, the new president. He in turn will swear in Fred Register, vice president of the student body; Frances Detrick, secretary; Jack Morgan, treasurer; Junius Peedin, president of the Student Senate, and Elizabeth Parker, president of the Student Council.

The remainder of the student government officials will be sworn in next year.

LT. JOURDAN BIVINS KILLED IN ACTION

First Lt. Jourdan Bivins, of Hillsboro, former Elon student, was killed in action over Germany last October. Reported missing, confirmation of his death was but recently received. He was navigator on a B-17 Flying Fortress, held the Air Medal with two Oak Leaf clusters, and was on mission over Berlin. It was his twenty-fourth mission over enemy territory.

MUSIC STUDENTS PRESENT RECITAL

The students of the music department gave their last recital of the college year on Friday, April 17, in Whitley Memorial Auditorium.

Those appearing on the program were Marguerite Hudson, Constance Miller, Jane Lewis, Jane McCauley, Eleanor Davidson, Ann Strader, Elizabeth Johnson, Florine Braxton, Mary Sue Colclough, Elizabeth Johnson, Eloise Fishel, Sarah Brewer, Karen Martin, Margaret Ann Boland, Martha Dowdy, Barbara Moore, Joann Newman, and Ted Isley.

D. C. Fonville Speaks At Junior-Senior Banquet

The annual Junior-Senior banquet was held on the evening of April 27 in South Dining Hall. Gene Poe was toastmaster. Miss Margaret Rawls, president of the Junior Class, welcomed the Seniors. Miss Nell Crenshaw, president of the class of 1945, responded. Miss Jeanne Hook sang with her usual grace and fine technique. Earl Daniely enlivened the student contribution to the evening with some "A-corny Remarks" in keeping with the decorative scheme of oak leaves and acorn President Smith, as always at home on such occasions, gave greetings to the classes and added humor and a lot of good fun to his observations about campus activities.

The guest speaker for the occasion was D. C. Fonville, lawyer and banker of Burlington. Mr. Fonville is a graduate of Elon and the University of Virginia law school, is a member of the Board of Trustees of Elon College, and an honored member of numerous organizations. The serious portion of his address was concerned with the program for the establishment of world peace: the Yalta conference, Dumbarton Oaks, the Chapultepec meeting in Mexico, the Bretton Woods plan for international finance and the present San Francisco assembly. Mr. Fonville made an earnest and eloquent plea for Americans to back the program to the limit, to strive to avoid the bitter fruit of "man's inhumanity to man."

QUARTER EXAMINATION SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED

Classes meeting at 10:30, will be given exams Friday morning, May 25, from 9:00 until 12:00 o'clock. Classes meeting at 11:30 o'clock will be given exams Friday afternoon, May 25, from 2:00 until 5:00 o'clock. Afternoon classes will be given exams Wednesday afternoon, May 23.

PLEASE KEEP US INFORMED ABOUT THE CURRENT ADDRESSES OF OUR MEN AND WOMEN IN SERVICE.

The annual May Day celebration is to take place Saturday, May 5, at 4:30 in front of Alamance Building when Miss Eliza Boyd, Henderson, and Gene Poe, Rockingham, will be crowned Queen and King-of-May. Maid of honor will be Miss Jeanne Hook, Elon College, escorted by Fred Register, Sanford. Senior attendants to the court will be Edna Rumley, Elon College, and Frances Gunter, Sanford; junior attendants, Margaret Rawls, Suffolk, and Jesse Thurecht, Elizabeth City. Attendant escorts are Ed Daniel, Virgilina, Va., and Emerson Whatley, senior; and Junius Peedin, Henderson, and Bill Clapp, Elon College, junior.

Other members of the court are Billy Hagquist and Betty Long, crown-bearers; Stella Marie Vickers and Phillis Hopkins, flower girls; and Wade Marlette and Buddy Bowden, train bearers.

It is expected that the King and Queen will be crowned by Earl Farrell, last year's May King, now a student at Divinity School of Duke University. Also to be present are many former Queens-of-May, all former queens having been invited to sit with the court.

The program is under the direction of John Westmoreland and Miss Anne McClenny of the music department.

To entertain the court, girls of the physical education classes will present a series of symphonic dances, featuring the music of Bach, Schubert, and Chopin. Soloists will be Marjorie Simpson, Dot Williams, and Vera Lamb in the Chopin number, and Shirley Sinclair and Marguerite Hudson in the Schubert symphony.

Some important last minute changes in the program may yet be made, it was announced today by Mr. Westmoreland.

Practices for the festival have been going forward vigorously; and with a good day of sunshine to atone for the rain of last year, this should be an outstanding occasion. Mr. Westmoreland and Miss McClenny and all participants deserve high commendation for their unstinting work to make the day successful.

JEANNE HOOK, Elon College, will attend the May Queen as the Maid of honor at the May Day exercises next Saturday.
