

COODEYE
TOM!

Maroon and Gold

Published By And For Elon Students

HELLO,
AL!

VOLUME XX

ELON COLLEGE, N. C., SATURDAY, APRIL 13, 1946

NUMBER THIRTEEN

REGISTER TO HEAD STUDENT BODY

"Mr. And Mrs. North" Presented in Whitley

Presenting "Mr. and Mrs. North," a murder thriller and Broadway success by Owen Davis, the Elon Players scored a hit in their three performances last Wednesday and Thursday. The play, under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth R. Smith, was presented in Whitley auditorium.

Jean West, Hampton, Va., co-starring with Al Burlingame, Cambridge, N. Y., had the leading role. Others in the cast were Bill Clapp, Anne Strader, Wally McCulloch, Edward Menke, Merritt Burns, and Jack Burch, all of Burlington; Bill Williams and Miller Basnight, New Bern; Orville Robinson and Kermit Inman, Wilmington; Floyd Boyce, Rich Square; Nancy Jordan, Gastonia; Steve Castura, Hazelton, Pa.; David McKinney, Gibsonville; Tom Burton, Reidsville; Betty Benton, Norfolk; and Warren Johnson, Jersey City, N. J.

The scene was laid in the Greenwich Village apartment of a young couple, Pam and Jerry North. A corpse, planted in their parlor, furnished the problem for the police, while the Norths contributed their own amateur sleuthing on the side. The Players are to be congratulated for their fine performance.

The set, attractively rearranged and painted by Leon Smith, was the same as the one used for "Moor Born" last fall. Furniture on stage was through the courtesy of the following Burlington business firms: Rhodes-Collins Furniture Store, The Antique Shop, Kirk-Holt Gift Shop, and C. F. Neese, Jewelers.

The following committees assisted in the production: properties—Orville Robinson, Kathleen Young, Kermit Inman, and Margaret Webster; publicity—Thomas Horner, Verdalee Norris, Earl Danieleley and Jane McCauley; tickets—Betty Benton, Ida Parker, and Dale Hensley; stage—Kathleen Young, Jimmy Madren, and Warren Johnson; prompting—Marorie Moore and Helen Gunter; and ushers—Orville Robinson, Max Neese, Carolyn Monsour, and Anne Ashley.

"Zengara" Given Awards At Chapel Hill

"ZENGARA," original one-act romantic comedy written by Mrs. Elizabeth R. Smith and Bill Clapp, and produced at the State Dramatic Festival at Chapel Hill on April 8, was given a certificate of honorable mention, and a production award. Top honors of the three-day festival went to Lee Edwards High School of Asheville, and to Mars Hill College.

Comment on the Elon play has been received from the judges. In general, the criticisms are commendations for originality in the "ghost" situation, and for the originating of novel action and background in the directing done by Mrs. Smith.

Plans for next year's original one-act drama are already being made. With the development of an increasing number of players, it is anticipated that the 1947 play will have an excellent opportunity to win the stage competition.

Anyone interested in writing plays should report to the instructors in Dramatics or in English.

BOY SCOUTS TO COLLECT WASTE PAPER

The local Boy Scout troop 51 will collect waste paper in the college and community next Thursday. The proceeds will be used to help pay the camping expenses of some underprivileged boy. The people are to cooperate by separating newspapers and magazines and placing them on the curb in front of their homes.

"CONFIDENTIAL AGENT" PLAYING TONIGHT

The Warner Bros. hit, "Confidential Agent", is showing tonight in Whitley. The movie stars Charles Boyer, Lauren Bacall, and Katina Paxinou.

Shown above are the five who will attend Miss Margaret Rawls, Suffolk, Va., when she is crowned Queen of May at the annual spring festival to be held on the campus May 4. They are: Miss Elizabeth Holland, Shelby, (center) maid of honor; Mrs. Florine Braxton Poe and Miss Joyce Smith, Whiteville, (top) senior attendants; and Miss Dale Hensley, Elon College, and Miss Verdalee Norris, Sanford, (bottom) junior attendants.

Burlingame To Edit 1946-47 M&G

Music Students Heard In Recital

The Music Department presented a student recital with Elon College students and extension students in Whitley Auditorium at 8:00 p. m. last Monday. Selections by Elon students were: Hageman's "Do Not Go, My Love," by Anne Strader; Stainer's "Fantasia" on the organ, by Patricia Hook; Streabog's "Distant Bells," a piano number by Charity Wheelless; an organ number "Arioso" by Handel and Faure's "Press Un Reve," a piano number, by Mary Elizabeth Browning; Rachmaninoff's "Prelude in G. Minor" by Lucille Morgan; Alliston's "Like as a Heart Desireth," voice solo, by Carrie Stanford; and Debussy's "Clair de Lune," on the piano, by Marguerite Hudson.

COLONNADES SCHEDULED FOR PUBLICATION IN MAY

The COLONNADES, Elon College Student Literary magazine, the printing of which was necessarily irregular during the war, is to appear again this spring.

Contributions from any student or faculty member is welcomed by the editors. Place material in MAROON AND GOLD box, or give it to Miss Verdalee Norris.

Al Burlingame, rising junior of Cambridge, N. Y., will edit the MAROON AND GOLD for next year. He will succeed Thomas Horner, New Bern, and will take over the publication of the paper with the last two issues of this year. Burlingame, who is president of the Veterans' Association, has served as sports editor for the past three months, and is well qualified to carry out his new duties.

An editorial staff has been tentatively appointed, including Betty Benton, Norfolk, who will continue as managing editor; Verdalee Norris, Sanford, and Catherine Cooper, Burlington, associate editors; Dorothy Salmons, Elkin, feature editor; and Steve Castura, Hazelton, Pa., sports editor. Jo Earp Albemarle, will continue as a special reporter and Ed Mulford, Port Chester, N. Y., as a special sports writer.

D. B. Harrell, Mount Olive, has been selected as business manager, and Virginia Ezell, Phoebus, Va., and Hazel Cole, Biscoe, will retain their duties as circulationists. C. R. McClure, instructor in journalism, will continue as faculty advisor; Dr. Merton B. French, photographer; and Charles Brown, of the BURLINGTON DAILY TIMES-NEWS staff, as printer.

Special writers will be Bill Williams, New Bern, veterans' columnist; and Dale Hensley, Elon College, day student columnist.

Eloise Fischel To Present Senior Recital

Miss Eloise Fischel, of Oxford, will present a piano recital in Whitley Auditorium on Thursday evening, April 25. Miss Fischel, who transferred from Meredith college last year, has studied under Professor Stuart Pratt at Meredith, and Professor Irving D. Bartley and Arne Hovdesven at Elon. She will graduate this year with a major in piano.

The program will consist of a Bach prelude, "Fugue," Mozart's "Concert in A Major," numbers by Beethoven, Dahnangis, and Lecuona.

The music department is presenting a series of two-student recitals this spring. The first of these will be given Sunday, April 28 at 8:15, by Miss Violet Blackmon and Lucille Morgan.

NOTICE!

All new students who are taking pre-medical, pre-dental or pre-nursing work are invited to join the Pre-Medical Association. The next meeting of the organization will be held Monday evening at 8:00 in Society Hall, with Professor A. L. Hook as the speaker.

Golombek And Clayton Named SGA Heads

SUMMER SESSION SCHEDULE IS ANNOUNCED

The regular two-term summer quarter will be held this summer, and a tentative schedule of courses to be offered has been drawn up for the first term, according to an announcement from the office of Dean D. J. Bowden, today. The first term will be held from June 3 to July 12, and the last session is set for July 15 until August 17. The present quarter will end May 27.

Students may register for two courses for each term. This totals twelve semester hours credit (18 quarter hours) for the two six-week sessions.

Courses tentatively scheduled to be offered for the first term are as follows: physics, zoology, botany, genetics, comparative anatomy, economics, advanced accounting, typing, history of education, philosophy of education, Freshman English, American literature, first year French, American history, algebra, analytical geometry, Bible survey, first year Spanish, engineering drawing, ethics, and courses in art and music.

A schedule for the second session will be drawn up later, but it is certain that English literature and second year Spanish will be included.

An unusually large enrollment is expected this summer, and students who plan to attend either term are urged to reserve their rooms immediately if they have not already done so.

EIGHTEEN PLEDGED AS FRATS REORGANIZE

Elon's four fraternities became an active part of campus life again last Saturday night, when bids were extended to candidates for the first time since the war interrupted fraternal activities here four years ago.

Although the sororities did not carry out a rushing season or extend bids, they aided their brother fraternities in rushing and bid-night preparations.

Boys accepting bids were as follows: Bobby Harris, Don Kernodle, and Joe Dunn, Sigma Phi Beta; Al Burlingame, Wayne Taylor, Tom Burton, Fred Register, Jack Walker, Frank McCauley, Kappa Psi Nu; Bill Clapp, Leon Hinton, Ed Daniel, Harold Walton, Sam Glascock, Alpha Pi Delta; and Marion Chase, Calvin Milam, E. V. Wood, and Harold Siler, Iota Tau Kappa.

"MAROON AND GOLD" SPONSORS CONTEST

The MAROON AND GOLD is sponsoring the annual superlative contest. Ballots were distributed Thursday and were supposed to be turned in Friday in order that the results could be announced in this issue of the paper. However, not enough ballots were turned in time to make the results a true consensus; therefore the time has been extended until Tuesday, and the winners will be announced in our next issue.

FORMER STUDENT TO PREACH SUNDAY

Chaplain Duane Vore, USN, will deliver the sermon for the morning worship service tomorrow. Chaplain Vore, who is on terminal leave from the navy, is an alumnus of Elon College and the Yale Divinity School. He was president of the student body here in his senior year.

Fred Register, Sanford, was elected president of the student body in the annual spring elections held last Thursday in Dean Bowden's office. He defeated Steve Castura, Hazelton, Pa., in a close vote. Register, a rising senior and ministerial student, has held many campus offices in his college career, including president of the Freshman SCA, sophomore class president and vice president of the student body.

Other student body officers elected are Wayne Taylor, Efland, vice president; Don Kernodle, Altamahaw, secretary; and Bill Copeland, Sunbury, treasurer.

Joe Golombek, Norfolk, a returned veteran, was selected Senate president; while Louise Clayton, Prospect Hill, who was this year vice president of the Junior class, was chosen to head the Council.

Other officers of the Senate are Dave McClenny, Goldsboro, vice president; Floyd Boyce, Jackson, secretary; and James Parker, Sunbury, treasurer. Other Council officials are Marian Griffin, Summerfield, vice president; Lois Mintz, Wilmington, secretary; and Betty Benton, Norfolk, treasurer.

The election results for the class offices are as follows: Senior class: Steve Castura, president; Virginia Ezell, vice president; Dale Hensley, secretary; and Nancy Jordan, treasurer. Senate representatives—Joe Dunn and Jimmy Roberts; Council representatives—Verdalee Norris and Hazel Cole.

Junior class: Wayne Taylor, president; Ace Harrell, vice president; Ann Griffin, secretary; Kathleen Young, treasurer; Vivian Walker and Patty Cochran, Council representatives; and John Williams and Vincent Long, Senate representatives.

Sophomore class: Floyd Boyce, president; Edna House, vice president; Elizabeth Jernigan, secretary; Bill Williams, treasurer; Fred Jackson, Senate representative; and Mildred Johnson, Council representative.

Day Students Organization: Dale Hensley, president; Helen Cobb, vice president; Max Neese, secretary; Walter McCulloch, treasurer; and Bill Jobe, Senate representative.

Margaret Rawls Elected President Of 1946 Alumni

At a recent meeting of the Senior Class held in Professor Barney's classroom, Margaret Rawls, Suffolk, was elected president of the class of 1946 Alumni until its first reunion at commencement in 1948. The class decided at the Senior dinner given by President and Mrs. Leon Edgar Smith several weeks ago, to have its first reunion in 1948.

Other officers elected were Martha Anne McDaniel, Anderson, S. C., vice president; Earl Danieleley, Burlington, secretary; and Tom Horner, New Bern, treasurer.

Bill Clapp, Senior president, presided over the meeting, at which, also, the members of the class decided to begin an Alumni Fund as their gift to the college. The fund, which will bear the name of the class, can be added too from time to time.

T/2 SOCIAL CALENDAR

April 13-28

13—Saturday: BOB Banquet.
15—Monday: Jack Rank, Shakespearan Actor in Whitley.
25—Thursday: Eloise Fischel, Senior Piano Recital.
26—Friday: Junior-Senior Banquet.
27—Saturday: TZPhi Banquet.
28—Sunday: Piano, Organ Recital, Violet Blackmon and Lucille Morgan.