

Ed Mulford Says

ABOUT BASKETBALL
Garland Causey has really put new life into our lads. As this is written, the Christians are currently the hottest things in the North State Conference and considered as good as anyone in the coming tournament. The thrilling 42-31, 53-48 and 44-42 wins over Lenoir Rhyne, High Point and Appalachian were honeys. The 47-33 win over Atlantic Christian might have been even more if the Christians had not had such a miserable first half. It's quite a race this North State affair, with every team in the conference having lost at least three games and even lowly Atlantic having won a couple.

ABOUT OUR CROWDS
Nothing to be proud of, however, are the actions of our students at these games. Booming the opposition when they toe the foul line, shouting insults at the officials and doing everything they can to lose friends in the North State, the crowds here are showing some of the worst sportsmanship ever witnessed. In the Appalachian game some 'egghead' even threw a newspaper at a foul shooter for the mountainers. At this point referee Husser should have called a technical foul on the crowd. But he didn't; instead he appointed himself a good candidate for janitor and gracefully exposed his posterior and swept the floor. Husser usually calls a good game, but he was so rattled here that he failed to call a jump ball, and instead called a technical foul on the Apps' Leslie Wey when questioned on it. Our boys played a wonderful game, but the Mountainers did have reason to go home with a "We wuz robbed" attitude.

ABOUT SOFTBALL
Football, basketball, baseball and all the intramural sports are a rousing success here. The Maroon and Gold is now going to get behind the one laggard and push it. Intramural softball scores and standings will be published in this sheet regularly. Also the box scores of the intramural games will be published. Teams are urged to get their clubs organized now! And if two teams don't have enough men to field a team, combine with another club. It takes nine men to play the game; it's fast and a swell

ABOUT BASEBALL
This year's baseball team finds a goodly amount of material back. Pitchers Andrews, Anderson, Vaughan, Roberts, and Davis from last year's club. Outfielders Sileo, York, Savini, Ellington, and Erlacher and infielders Ellis, Walker, and McSwain. Only two positions we are wondering about are second base (Walker is a short stop now) and catcher. Chub Brown of Burlington used to be pretty good behind the plate; perhaps he'll go out Under Jim Mallory the club should be a bit of o.k.

ABOUT JIM MALLORY
This is the good news we were all waiting for. Jim Mallory has been named coach at Elon. The general opinion is that it's a mighty good choice. The first time we ever saw "Sunny Jim", as he is known in New York, was at the Polo Grounds playing with the New York Giants. We were just out of the Army at the time and traveling 40 miles to the ball park for our local paper each day. The Giants had three good center fielders in Red Treadway, John Rucker and Mr. Mallory. Once he got into the lineup they couldn't get him out. He hit well and showed amazing speed. As we recall, an injured ankle finally forced him out of the game after 77 fine performances. Next time we saw him was while playing basketball over at Burlington High with a local team and at that time we were impressed with his hospitality and general nice way of treating teams that visited there. We don't believe that "Jim" is going to take any baloney—but we do believe that he's a nice guy and will produce some fine teams at Elon.

Up into the stratosphere go those two scrappy guards, Frank Henry of High Point and our own Lacy Ganes. Referee Otto Hawn has just tossed the ball up, and Kampman and Kernodle of Elon stand by. The other High Point player (18) is Waizan Indiana impersonation.

Elon Takes Two From W.C.T.C

By Ed Mulford
"Our Team is Red Hot"! That indeed is the story of the amazing Elon College basketball team, which leaped into third place in the North State Conference with two hard-earned wins over the Western Carolina Catamounts this past weekend. Heroes were a dime a dozen during the two games as Smith, Kernodle and Kampman were aces in the first game, and Ganes, Savini and Kampman, again, starred in the second.
The first battle was a heartbreaker for the boys from Cullowhee to lose. Leading all the way, they saw Harvey Smith, who actually was not hitting well at all, steal the ball and go down the court for a layup that tied the game up at 38-38 and sent it into overtime. That same Mr. Smith as well as Ganes and Clayton tallied in the overtime to give Elon a 44-42 win that had the old "sardine can" gym of the Christians rocking with jubilation. McGinn was the big gun for the McConnellmen as he tallied 13 points to lead all scorers.
The tough loss of the night before must have taken the heart out of Western Carolina, for Elon was by far the better team in the second game as they rolled to a substantial 46-37 win. Lacy Ganes was as hot as the Key West sun as he racked off 20 big points for his biggest night of the season. Elon held a 21-17 half-time lead. Leo Kampman, who controlled all the rebounds in the thrilling first game repeated in the second game his fine defensive work insuring the victory.
The two wins gave Elon a conference record of seven wins and five losses, pushing them ahead of Lenoir-Rhyne which has a six and six score. Catawba stands at seven wins and three losses while Appalachian has eight and four. High Point and E. C. T. C. are both still in the race with .500 records or four victories and four defeats. As of February 15th Elon had won nine games and lost the same number.

Elon Trounces Appalachian By Score of 44-42

By ROCKY SILEO
The Fighting Christians of Elon College rose to greater heights by virtue of their stirring 44-42 victory over Appalachian State Teachers College for their third consecutive conference upset. This victory, plus the one at the expense of High Point earlier in the week, moved the previous cellar dwelling Elon into fifth place

Elon started off fast and held an 11-6 lead with 7 minutes of play gone, but the Mountaineers came soaring back mainly on the performance of Hope and went into a 17-16 lead for the first time in the initial half with fifteen minutes gone. Appalachian continued their fine shooting as Beach featured with two long set shots as the Mountaineers went on to gain a 7 point, 27-20 lead at half time.

For Coach Garland Causey's club Johnny Clayton, the diminutive team captain, was the big gun offensively with 14 points while Don Kernodle, a letterman of the war years, held control of the back boards throughout the ball game to feature on the defense.

A.C.C. Falls Before Elon

Elon's Christians, overcoming a halftime deficit of 19-13, defeated the Bulldogs from Wilson 47-33 on Feb. 11. Lacy Ganes, shortest man on the court, took high scoring honors for Elon with twelve points, with Harvey Smith following at 10. The triumph brought the Christians' record up to 5 and 5 in the Conference and made it 7 wins and 9 losses for the season. Smith, who is just a frosh here at Elo', entered the contest late in the second half with the Causeymen leading 26-25 and proceeded to four quick field goals. Those eight points really sewed up the ball game.

The Elon Jayvees won a thrilling 38-37 overtime fracas with Hargrave Military Academy in the preliminary as Fesmire led the way with 16 points

Elon Larrups Lenoir Rhyne

It was a close ball game in the early portions of the second half, in the battle between the Lenoir-Rhyne Bears and the Elon Christians, when Harvey Smith entered the fray. All Harvey did was drop in 10 fast points and it was Elon's ball game. The classy visitors from Hickory had held the lead for the most part, but Smith made the difference. A gentleman named Leo Kampman also had plenty to say about the win as he not only controlled the rebounds but also dropped 11 points through the hoop. Fred McCall, Billy Wells and Leo Kantorski all impressed with the Bears, who showed some fancy passing and clever ball handling. Although the Christians have beaten Lenoir Rhyne twice, the Hickorymen have won over a dozen games and the win was a grand one for Elon.

Music, wrote Carlyle, "is well said to be the speech of angels," and while that cannot pass as definition, it does serve to emphasize the difference between music and an ordinary succession of sounds.

Chorus is the name now applied to groups of singers in operas, oratorios, cantatas and church choirs and to the part of a musical composition which is sung by several voices.

I. T. K. AND OAK LODGE PACE INTRAMURALS

Although all the teams are racking up wins in the intramural leagues, two clubs are in the lead and appear the most likely to appear in the finals. I.T.K. is undefeated in one league, while Oak Lodge has only bowed once in the other. East is the closest competitor for I. T. K. in its league having lost but two, both close battles with the boys in red. The Oak Lodge team, which features fast breaks and good pass work has won several games that were in doubt until the last minute. Standings of the respective leagues appear on the bulletin board in the Alamance Building.

LIBRARY COMPLAINS
Someone is being unfair. Sports reports of Elon games in the newspapers in the library are being torn out. It's pretty selfish for others want to read about the games too. Also they serve as a permanent record as all the papers are kept on file in the library. Lets cut that out!
