

Sanf'd Succumbs To Elon, 16-3

The Fighting Christians of Elon College ran rough house over Sanford on the latter's field last Friday, April 9, defeating the Spinners 16-3.

Frank Roberts and C. K. Siler combined mound duties to scatter eleven hits. The Fighting Christians pounded three Sanford pitchers unmercifully for thirteen hits and a big seven run ninth inning to complete the humiliation.

Haynes opened the ball game with a single and scored moments later as Poole singled to deep short and Hank Nesslerod drove a bingle through the infield to score Haynes. The Spinners touched Roberts for another run in the fourth as Owens doubled. Payne singled and Ham doubled to score both runners.

In the meantime, Coach Jim Mallory's crew were having a big second inning scoring four runs. Lou Savini was hit by a pitched ball and went to third as Billy Matze reached safely on an error by Haynes. Then with two gone, Roberts walked to load the bases and Dick York promptly sent a long double to the left-center field wall scoring Savini and Matze. Steve Walker followed suit on the very next pitch to score Roberts and York with the final two runs of the inning to literally sew up the ball game.

The Spinners countered their third and final tally in the ninth as Siler walked Nesslerode and Owens and Kunkle doubled.

For the Fighting Christians, York and DeSimone had three hits apiece and Walker, Ellis and Caviness two apiece to lead the attack. Both Caviness and DeSimone had two long doubles.

Centerfielder Payne had three safeties for the Spinners.

It was the fourth victory in as many appearances for Elon's robust right-hander, fireballer Frank Roberts who gave up six hits and two runs in his five inning mound chore. Siler who worked the last four turned in an equally good performance allowing five hits and a lone tally and, although he showed signs of wildness the young freshman right hander fanned six.

Elon College plays host to Sanford at the College Park Monday afternoon and then journeys to Guilford to meet the Quakers in a conference tilt Tuesday afternoon, and the two clubs come to Elon Saturday for a return engagement.

Elon 0 4 0 0 0 0 2 3 7—16 13 1
Sanford 1 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 1- 3 11 10

Batteries: Elon, Roberts, Siler, and DeSimone; Sanford, Cooper, Richardson, Rue, and Ham, Carkner.

THE EDITOR'S WOES

(Continued from page two)

cattle by the number of tidewater marks on their legs to the highest of the mountains east of the Rockies. In the mountains, she swore, her family could sit on their front porch and converse in a normal tone with some relatives on their front porch, but in order to visit one another, it was necessary to walk fifteen miles. The name of that gulch has been forgotten momentarily, but it is of no importance, since the North Carolina mountains are full of much larger ones, she said.

However trivial such information may seem, the editor of this paper does have an excellent opportunity to acquire knowledge and of a factual nature. There is only one factor which detracts from the position, and that doesn't bother the unscrupulous: "It is hell to be famous!" Of course, one having great strength of character need have no fear of real harm from this. We just thought we would warn you, and in closing confirm your thought that most editorials are merely space-fillers.

ELON WALLOPS ETC, 6-4

(Continued from page three)

doubled and Ed Ellis sent both home with a long single. Coach Mallory's crew added two more in the third on Gene Caviness' single, Lou Savini's double and an error, to take a comparatively safe lead although the game wasn't won until Elon countered with lone tallies in the sixth and seventh innings.

Greggs led off the sixth with a base on balls, moved to second on an infield out and scored as Walker rapped out his second hit of the day. Singles by Ellis, Caviness and Matze added the final tally in the seventh.

York, Walker, Ellis and Caviness each had two hits apiece to pace the Fighting Christians while McCotter, starting twirler for the Pirates was the big gun with three hits.

Roberts, who kept twelve hits well scattered, received excellent support as the infielders played errorless ball and racked up to fast double plays.

Elon 2 0 2 0 0 1 1 0 0 6 1 1
E.C.T.C. 0 0 0 0 0 1 3 0 0 4 12 2

NEWS FLASH — COLUMBUS DISCOVERS AMERICA

Madrid, Oct. 16—(Amalgamated Press)—(Delayed)—An official news release of the Spanish court announced that Christopher Columbus has landed safely in the West Indies and is officially the winner of the "Let's Discover America" contest, sponsored by the Castilian Chamber of Commerce.

Columbus says he will use the $10,000 prize money to get Isabella's jewel's out of hock.

Norway has protested the decision, basing its claim on a prior discovery by Leif Ericson. Ericson was ruled out on grounds of professionalism. Russia threatens to veto decision.

Touring Players To Do Pygmalion

On Friday night, April 16, at 8:30, in Whitley Auditorium the Touring Players, Inc. of Larchmont, N.Y., will present George Bernard Shaw's comedy, "Pygmalion." Students who have Elon Players tickets for the season may use them for this performance.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

(Continued from page one)

recent arrivals on the campus.

I do not write this just because I happen to be one who has missed a jacket and a wrist watch but because I think that the rest of the student body feels the same as I do in this respect. I did not know of some of the things that were missing until the subject came up in a recent class. After hearing of so many thefts, I decided to take advantage of my right to have printed what I think is very important to all of us here at dear ole' Elon.

Thank you, Maroon and Gold, for this valuable space.

Just a freshman.

"Eb" Peters

ELON TROUNCES BEES, 16-4

singles as did Ed Ellis but Dick York who has been batting at a torrid pace lately, was the star hitter of the evening with two singles and a double.

Art Fowler who gained the victory pitched the first four innings allowing four hits and two runs. Bill Anderson finished up giving five hits and the final two runs in his three inning mound chore.

Bur. 0 0 0 2 1 1 0 4 8 7
Elon 5 0 2 5 1 3 x 16 12 0

THE ANTHEM RENDERED OR OFFERED

(Continued from page two)

top! He begins to fulfill his mission. He gives--yea, he gives of the wisdom he has gained in the ascent. He offers it as an oblation to God! Not only does he offer it for himself, but also for me, for you, for the whole group of worshippers. "The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in..." So that must be your service: render, of course, render it, but not merely as a rendition, but as an offering, a self-giving of the best you have and with the holiest feeling you can muster. Then like the poet who attained the mountain top giving of his best, you too may in the act of oblation bring yourselves, as well as your listeners, to the mountain top. And there you may reverently stand on your tip-toes and throw kisses at the angels.

Ed. note: The above article was written as an assignment for classroom presentation and is not aimed at the Elon College Choir or any other similar organization.

PAINTINGS BY MARY WALKER ON DISPLAY THIS WEEK

The Art Department is presenting an exhibition of nine Alaskan scenes by Mary Walker in the Music Listening Room this week. Miss Walker spent two years in Alaska in educational work. Also on display will be a few other pieces of Miss Walker's work painted while she was a student at Elon.

Miss Lila Newman, Head of the Art Department, extends an invitation to students and faculty to attend the exhibit.

Burlington's Oldest, Largest, and Most Modern Dept. Store

Sellers
DEPARTMENT STORE

FOR FINE SHOES

Goldman's
SHOES THEY TALK ABOUT

Burlington, N. C.

Stop For A Rest
AND INVEST IN YOUR College Book Store

A Welcome Waits You At Acme Drug, Inc.

AND

Main St. Drug, Inc.

BURLINGTON, N. C.