

Football Schedule Made Public For 1951 Season

Nine tough games and one open date, for which an opponent is still being sought, make up the 1951 football schedule for the Fighting Christians of Elon College. The schedule was made public this week by Coach Jim Mallory, who has piloted the Maroon and Gold gridmen through highly successful seasons during the past two years.

Two of the opponents on last fall's card are missing from this 1951 schedule, since both High Point and Atlantic Christian announced some weeks ago that they would drop the popular fall sport. This made it necessary for the Elon athletic authorities to find new opponents to fill their dates.

The Elon eleven will open its season for the second straight year by invading southwestern Virginia to battle the powerful Emory and Henry Wasps. This game is scheduled for Saturday, September 15th, and it will serve as a severe opening test for the local gridmen.

The Wasps, who have ranked for several seasons among the hottest small-college squads in the land, proved entirely too much for the Fighting Christians last season. The Emory and Henry coach loosed a squad of fast-moving backs to roll up a big lead in the first half and then went on to win over Elon by a 33 to 12 score.

The Norfolk Naval Air Station eleven, one of the finest service elevens on the east coast, takes the second spot on the Elon schedule, replacing the A.C.C. game. The Newberry Indians, a perennial opponent, are the other out-of-state squad on the card, but the Indians have been shifted from their old date in mid-October to take the place of High Point on the first weekend in November. This leaves that second weekend in October as an open date.

The remainder of the 1951 schedule calls for battles with each of the other six football squads in the North State Conference, and several of those Conference opponents will be loaded for bear this coming autumn, provided the military emergency does not wreck their manpower prior to the renewal of gridiron warfare.

There is some doubt at this time whether Elon will play her home games on Saturday, but the following schedule has been listed for Saturday dates, pending a decision as to time of play each weekend. The schedule follows:

- Sept. 15—E. and H., away.
- Sept. 22—Norfolk Navy, home.
- Sept. 29—Appalachian, home.
- Oct. 6—E.C.T.C., away.
- Oct. 13—Open date.
- Oct. 20—Catawba, away.
- Oct. 27—W.C.T.C., home.
- Nov. 3—Newberry, home.
- Nov. 10—Lenoir-Rhyne, away.
- Nov. 22—Guilford, away.

North State Conference."

The North State Conference representatives in the All-State basketball selections were Ronald Rogers of West Carolina; Sonny Russell of East Carolina; and Larry Graham of Catawba. Congratulations, fellows!

Don't forget the season opener in baseball this Friday against a bunch of Yankees from Springfield College, Mass. Let's support the team with plenty of yelling. That's what it takes to get the old rally going.

Whether we win, lose, or it goes into extra innings, let's be good sports.

Haithcox Top Cage Scorer

The final compilation of individual basketball scores for the 1950-51 varsity cage campaign, including the points tallied in the annual North State Conference Tournament, gave top ranking to big Don Haithcox by a wide margin with Ben Kendall taking the runner-up honors.

Haithcox, big Christian center, had a total of 329 points in 23 games during the year. His total was nineteen points under his top score of a year ago, but he played six less games than during the previous year, so his average game score was higher during the season just ended.

The final tabulation of all varsity cage scoring for the year, made after the tournament, follows:

Player	FG	FT	TP
Haithcox	137	55	329
Kendall	102	53	257
Mondy	104	31	239
Hamrick	73	61	207
Gaither	68	22	158
Lewis	46	31	123
Hall	28	21	77
Cooper	29	11	69
Gauldin	16	7	39
Rakes	11	7	29
Ussery	5	7	17
Mitchell	5	2	12
Blackstone	4	1	9

Elon Tennis Team Plans For Season

Only two lettermen are back this year as a nucleus for the Elon College tennis team, which will be defending the North State Conference championship won last year. Bill Winstead, individual champion a year ago, is back in school, but he has had his four years of competition, and Frank Tingley and Pete Marshburn are the only veterans left to anchor the team.

Coach J. L. Pierce announced this week a schedule that includes thirteen tough matches in April and May. The schedule follows:

- April 7—N. C. State, home.
- April 10—U.N.C. Frosh, home.
- April 12—Guilford, home.
- April 13—Lenoir-Rhyne, away.
- April 17—High Point, home.
- April 19—Catawba, away.
- April 20—Guilford, away.
- April 24—U.N.C. Frosh, away.
- April 25—High Point, home.
- April 26—Lenoir-Rhyne, home.
- May 1—E.C.T.C., away.
- May 7—N. C. State, away.
- May 10—Catawba, home.

OUTFIELDERS

ARCHIE BRIGMAN—Senior letterman from Rowland, who played regular centerfield last season, but may be shifted to left field this spring. He is 5 feet 9 inches tall, bats and throws right-handed.

CARROLL REID—Sophomore letterman from Ashland, Va., who proved a long-ball hitter and fast afieid and on bases last year. He is 6 feet tall and bats and throws right-handed. Regular right-fielder last year.

BOBBY STEWART—Freshman outfielder from Sanford, who played infield in semi-pro last year. Stands 6 feet tall and bats left and throws right. May bid high for center-field berth.

BILLY FRITTS—Freshman from Winston-Salem, who has shown good arm and good hitting eye. He is 5 feet 11 inches tall, bats and throws right-handed.

JACK CHRISTY—Sophomore from Crafton, Pa., who played football instead of baseball last spring. Is 5 feet 9 inches tall. Bats and throws right-handed.

DON MERRIMON—Sophomore from Fieldale, Va., who was a squad member last year. Stands 3 feet tall and bats and throws right-handed.

ROGER OVERMAN—Freshman from Alamance. Played at E. M. Holt High. He is 5 feet 9 inches tall and bats and throws right-handed.

Talk is in the air to have an early season basketball tournament here next year, patterned after the Dixie Classic in the Southern Conference. Schools from North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia, and maybe Georgia would participate.

The girls basketeers from the Second Floor West clinched the campus championship in the titular play-offs held during the final week of the winter quarter. Members of the winning squad (left to right in the above picture) are Lucille Cameron, Jean Thompson, Annie Laura Albright, Betty Ward, Daisy Morris, Della Crutchfield, Rachel Badgett and Laverne Brady.

the course this quarter, due solely to the fact that his experiment smells like cloves. This is in direct contrast to the standard lab procedure, since cloves do have a very pleasing smell.

Directly in front of Mr. Harned in this same snapshot is a small, black, box-like affair. This is a pH meter. This study of pH is of great value in the field of bio-chemistry, since in bio-chemistry each of the human body fluids have a definite pH and can be identified with this meter. This, I was informed, was but one of the many uses of this machine.

Just in case some of our more backward readers do not fully understand what pH is, I will quote a short definition: "Little 'p' and capital 'H' is a chemical symbol denoting the negative logarithm of the concentration of the hydrogen ion in gram atoms per liter, used in expressing both acidity and alkalinity." I am quite sure that you will now understand this as well as I do.

In the absence of Dr. Ned Brannock, we had the kind help of Dr. Paul Cheek in seeking out the material used in this article. He was of great help and did not hesitate for a minute to take us behind the scenes of the department. Both he and the student assistants cooperated in every way possible to give me information. He interrupted Messrs. Ward and Apple, who were taking the inventory, previously mentioned, long enough to have them pose for our other picture and to explain to us their purpose in taking the inventory. He aided me, not only with the terminology and explanations, but went to the trouble to explain them in simple terms (see pH).

Dean's List Announced For Term Just Ended

One hundred twenty-four students have been placed on the Dean's List for this quarter, following compilation of grades for the winter quarter. This represents a sharp drop in the number of honor students, since there were one hundred ninety-four who earned an honor rating on the basis of fall quarter work.

Those who had an "A" on all subjects included Dwight Apple, Durant Brannock, Luther Clapp, Harold Daniel, Ray Euliss, Edna Garrison, James Hailey, Adeline Horner, Warren Matthews, Billy Mittelstadt, Page Painter, William Pugh, Laverne Russell, Anne Strule, Phyllis Tucker, Marian Turk and Frank Ward.

Those who had a "B" average included Sheffield Abell, Mary J. Abercrombie, Fred Allred, Gale Anderson, John Arwood, Sam Barber, John Barefoot, Bill Earger, Hazel Barker, Bill Blackstone, Glenn Bolick, Fred Bowman, Joseph Bowman, Laverne Brady, Ernestine Bridges, Clarence Brown, Fred Burmeister, June Stone Byrd,

SCHOLARSHIP PRIZE

One of the top prizes for the forthcoming "Miss Burlington" contest, to be held in Burlington early in April, will be a one-year tuition scholarship to Elon College. The winner of the "Miss Burlington" title will also compete in the statewide contest for the "Miss North Carolina" honor. The state contest is also to be held in Burlington later this year. Who knows but what Elon's student body will include the state beauty queen next year?
