

Camp New Hope Is Scene Of First SCA 'Retreat'

On Friday afternoon, September 12th, the members of the Student Christian Association left the campus to begin the first of two overnight retreats, which that organization proposes to hold this year. The outing was held at Camp New Hope, a Presbyterian camp located seven miles north-west of Chapel Hill.

Upon arrival at the camp, many of the students soon found the proverbial "old swimming hole" and relaxed a few minutes before the formal program began at 4 o'clock. Phil Mann, SCA president this year, opened that first session with a message of welcome and introduced Robert Phelps, who led in a brief worship service.

The president also introduced the other officers for the year, including Laverne Brady, vice-president; Louise McLeod, secretary; at the same time announcing that Virginia Jernegan, the treasurer, was unable to attend the retreat. President Mann also introduced faculty members present, including Dean D. J. Bowden, Dean Alice M. Black, Dr. Ferris E. Reynolds and Rev. H. P. Bozarth, pastor of the college church and SCA advisor.

Also presented were the co-chairmen of the various SCA committees. They included Douglass Edwards and Roger Phelps, of the Religious Life Commission; Lois Scott and Gilbert Briddle, of the World Order Commission; and Tom Targett and Sammy Nelson, of the Campus Affairs Commission.

The SCA Retreat featured meetings on Friday afternoon and evening, with Dr. Reynolds and Dr. Bowden leading discussions and with evening recreation led by Laverne Brady and Tom Targett. There were early devotions before breakfast on Saturday morning, after which a business session was held at which the program for the year was explained.

Nelson President Ministers' Group

The Student Ministerial Association is off to an active start on its year's activities, having gathered on Monday evening, September 8th, for the first meeting of the year. The groups meet each Monday evening in the Music Theory room.

Officers of the association are Sammy Nelson, of LaGrange, Ga., president; Bill Simmons, of Albemarle, vice-president; Thomas Madren, of Elkton, Va., treasurer; and Hazel Sherman, of Oxford, secretary.

'TOP TEN' LISTED FOR ENGLISH TEST

The names of the ten students who this year posted the highest scores on the English Placement Test, given annually to freshmen, commercial students and upper-class transfers, has just been announced by Dr. James Howell, head of the English Department. He listed the following leaders:

Judith Chadwick, Andover, Mass.; Jean Tew, Durham; Gwen Coyner, Burlington; Robert Mercier, Jacksonville, Fla.; Ann Stoddard, Braintree, Mass.; Lola Mae Strange, Burlington; Meryle Mauldin, Winston-Salem; Shirley Cox, Elon College; Donald James, Greensboro; and Harold Mackey, Greensboro.

The test was administered this year to a total of 260 persons, including the regular freshmen, the commercials and five upper-classmen who transferred to Elon.

FOUNDERS DAY

The ten-year goal was originally set at $2,000,000, but the officials and leaders of the Southern Convention last year approved a new over-all goal of $2,500,000, of which $1,300,000 remains to be raised. The new fund is planned to provide the college with four new dormitories, two for boys and two for girls, and a new dining hall.

Dr. Smith read the names of the leaders for the campaign, including outstanding ministers and laymen from all parts of the Southern Convention of the Congregational Christian Church. Committeemen present for the meeting were called to the front of the auditorium, where a brief service of consecration was held. District meetings will be held in each of the church districts in North Carolina and Virginia to set up local machinery for conducting the Elon campaign.

NEW FACULTY MEMBERS

American College of the University of Madras. A native of Philadelphia, he did his undergraduate work at the University of Pennsylvania and added the Master's Degree and the Bachelor of Divinity at the University of Chicago. He is the author of several books on Shakespeare and the Elizabethan theatre.

Prof. H. L. Lawless, who is teaching accounting in the Business Department, came to Elon after serving for the past three years at Defiance College in Ohio, where he taught accounting and other business subjects. Prior to that time he was in high school work in Illinois. He has the Master's Degree from the University of Iowa, where he has also done advanced work toward the Ph. D. Degree.

Mrs. Mary P. Shockey, a native of Greensboro, is teaching Home Economics this year. She is a graduate of Woman's College, where she has done advanced work in the graduate field, and she also holds a dietitian's certificate from the Watts Hospital, Durham. She has served as head dietitian in the Baptist Hospital, Greensboro, and the Central Carolina Convalescent Hospital, Greensboro. She has also taught home economics in the public schools.

Prof. Jonathan M. Sweat, a native of Corinth, Miss., is the new member of the Elon music faculty. He had undergraduate work at Vanderbilt University and has also studied at Ward-Belmont University, Memphis College of Music and at Julliard School, where he received the B. S. and M. S. Degrees. He has had wide experience in music, including concert work in both solo and ensemble capacities, the last two years under contract to the Young Artists' Concert Management, appearing in recitals in several states. He has been organist and choirmaster for several years and has done private teaching.

Large Class Is Graduated August 22nd

Thirty-one seniors received diplomas and degrees from Elon College at the annual summer graduation exercises held on Friday evening, August 22nd. This group added to the 96 who graduated in May to make a total of 127 to receive diplomas and degrees from Elon in the Class of 1952.

Dr. L. E. Spikes, superintendent of the Burlington city schools, delivered the address to the graduates. The diplomas and degrees were presented by President Leon E. Smith, while the Bibles were presented by Rev. Walstein Snyder, of Burlington. The invocation was by Dr. W. T. Scott, of Elon College.

The summer graduates were Arthur Addison, Norfolk, Va.; Ireni Autry, Gibsonville; Helen Bland, Burgaw; Joseph Bryson, Greensboro; Edna Burke, Pittsboro; Charlie Burrus, Englehard; Virginia Davis, Greensboro; which two months were spent in Africa and one month in the Near East. Both have been busy with radio engagements since their return, Dr. Sloan appearing on Station WBBB at 3:40 each Tuesday and Thursday afternoon and joining Mrs. Sloan in a program over Station WFNS at 9:30 each Saturday morning.

NEW CHEERLEADERS

NAMES ANNOUNCED

The new cheerleaders for 1952-53 have just been announced by Carolyn Abell, of Reidsville, chief cheerleader. She worked with Oscar Holland, of Clinton, and Phillip Mann, of Cypress Chapel, Va., in choosing the new members of the squad.

New members include Don Allen, Burlington; Johnny Bolt, Burlington; Beulah Burgess, Burlington; Helen Colvert, Sanford; Millie Edwards, Winston-Salem; Faye Hall, Henderson; Sue Holton, Winston-Salem; Bertie Lewis, Wilmington; and Louise McLeod, Albemarle.

Social Events For Weekends

The Student Entertainment Committee, which has as its purpose the proper amusement of the Elon student body at all times, got off to a great start last weekend with a dance in the Student Union on Friday evening and a social in West Dormitory parlors on Saturday evening.

The group, which is headed by Phillip Mann as chairman, laid down a tentative program for the entire year at a recent meeting, in which the students were joined by members of the faculty. The proposed program lays special emphasis on weekend events, including a round of dinners, supper and informal dances of both round and square varieties.

The committee is asking that each organization on the campus cooperate in the program by sponsoring as an individual group at least one event for the entire student body, and tentative plans call for some sort of award to the group which stages the most successful event during the year.

In addition to the chairman, other student members of the entertainment committee are Judith Ingram, Jimmy Rhodes, Grace Bozarth, Helen Craven, Tom Targett and Joe Morris.
