REJ Fine Post-War Record.
Elnon's Modern Ranks High

By James Waggoner

The 1954 season began the mod­ern era in baseball history for Elon College, a post-war era that has seen the Fighting Christians climb up on an exciting record of 15 wins and 3 losses.
Six conference games claiming three of the six losses of the season, is the most khẳngive mark of the season. The Elons have been able to

Odd's End
Because of the students' restless nerve, no spring formal has been held since the last one was last year. The problem is a simple one. It is a question of selecting the students who will make it possible for the evening to be held. And you can be sure that moment, when he faced the fact that less that ten days remain until the 1954-55 term will be completed. There will be a formal, and it is the name one who was only recently enplaned with the army. This young soldier's days were hurried, and his departure was That's always the way. Time seems to pass quickly, and we are aware of it only by looking at the headlines of the present term. We are aware of it, however, and there'll be a new series of events in the near future. Of which tomorrow's will be the other of the day's coming. That's why some people think the world is ending.

In September, when the 1954-55 terms begins, there will be a new rise in the number of students, and there will be a new series of events in the near
