

EDDIE ROBBINS
Greensboro, N. C.

LINDA SIMPSON
Elon College, N. C.

REX THOMAS
Sanford, N. C.

GALLERY OF WHO'S WHO

Pictures left to right in alphabetical order. Nineteen other pictures on Page 1.

PHYLLIS WALLACE
Burlington, N. C.

LOUIS WILKINS
Lenning, Va.

JACKIE WILLIAMSON
Townsville, N. C.

Elon Band Reports Fine Jaunt Into Bears' Lair

By JO McQUADE

Radio Club In New Quarters

Headquarters for the Elon College Radio Club have been moved to a new location in Room 303 of the Mooney Building, the move being completed at the time of the club's regular meeting at 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

Equipment, radio handbooks, maps and other paraphernalia are available in the new club room, and anyone interested in amateur radio is welcome to join the club. Anyone interested should contact Jo McQuade, 206 West Dorm, for a membership blank. The next meeting of the club is set for 10 o'clock, Saturday morning, December 14th, in the club rooms on third floor of the Mooney Building.

With Pleasure Pianists Heard

The Whitley Auditorium was filled to capacity on Thursday night, November 8th, when Ferrante and Teicher, duo-pianists, presented the second in a series of programs sponsored by the Alameda Civic Music Association, with the cooperation of the Elon College Music Department.

The concert was thoroughly enjoyed from the first rendition, "Sheep May Safely Graze," to the last number, "Chopsticks." Among the highly enjoyed numbers were "Sonata in D Major," "Variations on a Theme of Beethoven," "Concertino for Two Pianos," "Slaughter on Tenth Avenue," and a medley from "My Fair Lady."

The highlight of the program was the accompanying "sound effects" for the last few numbers, "A Group of Prepared Piano Arrangements." The pianos were "prepared" or doctored by placing objects on the strings of the keyboard, resulting in sounds of every instrument from a banjo to a tom-tom.

WITH SQUARE

(Continued From Page Two)

(Continued From Page Two) lated notes to "Chuck" Oakley and Arthur Pitts. Get well wishes also to Prof. Blackstone, and Anita Lyles.

Vignettes

My funny valentine, Woody Brown, is said to have the ugliest mirror on campus. You can't hide the wrinkles Woody, ask Turner Winston. Memo Brown—the only thing that beats a try is a failure, so keep trying.

In closing this issue, I would like to say it has been pages of fun for me and I sincerely hope it has been the same for you. Memorandum to Midnights—Examinations are here and will be here for the quarters to follow. Hope you can be here in the quarters to follow also. If not I'll see you in the funnies. Bye Now!

GRIDMEN HONORED AT DINNER

B. O. B. Girls Win Volley Ball Title

The girls of Beta Omicron Beta Sorority claimed the campus volleyball championship for the 1957 season when they defeated Delta Upsilon Kappa 34 to 29 in the finals of the annual Fall Quarter tournament. It was the second successive title for the B.O.B. lassies, who had previously defeated West Dorm in tourney play.

Members of the title-winning B.O.B. combination included Pat Coghill, Jean Coghill, Nancy Lemmons, Marian Glasgow, Katie Langley, Martha Langley, Pamley Dofflemyer, Elizabeth Morris, Ann Bass, Frances Kittrell, Lannie Wright and Rosaline Toney.

The volleyball play drew entries from seven teams, including Beta Omicron Beta, Delta Upsilon Kappa, Beta Chi Epsilon, Tau Zeta Phi, Day Students, West Dorm and Virginia Hall.

FIRST CAGE GAME

(Continued From Page Three)

A return engagement with Pfeiffer is set here on Saturday, December 14th, the final game before Yule holidays.

Coach Doc Mathis had some difficulty in arranging a basketball schedule this season, possibly an aftermath of the victorious campaigns of recent years when the Christians pasted a lengthy string of defeats on some of the outstanding teams in this area.

In speaking of this scheduling difficulty, Coach Mathis pointed out that he could schedule only four games outside of the North State Conference for this season.

The four non-loop battles are those with Belmont Abbey and Pfeiffer. In addition to those games, the Christians will play home-and-home games with each of the other eight teams in the Conference and will close the regular season with the Conference tourney late in February.

It is too early yet to predict the starting line-up for the Christians, who lost all five of last year's starters by the graduation route. Only two lettermen are back this season, Frank DeRita, a tall senior from Brooklyn, and Larry Ausha, a sophomore guard from Shelby.

Among last year's reserves who have been drilling in the early season are Buddy Way, Rick Turner and Frank Robertson. Bob Bell, who came to Elon after a whirl at service ball in the Marines, is a new prospect, along with several promising freshmen. Among the freshmen are Eddie Burke and C. G. Hall, who gained honor mention in North Carolina high school circles last year.

noir Rhyne Football Network" from the bus and hoisted it onto the window ledge of North Dorm.

Then, in spite of the fact that it was 3 o'clock in the morning, the band, the student body, the team, and even the faculty, proclaimed to the countryside—"WE GOT BEAR MEAT!"

The Elon College football, with the first undefeated and untied mark in Elon gridiron history, was honored by the college administration at a steak dinner Monday night in the banquet room of McJewen Memorial Dining Hall. Chief speaker for the occasion was Dr. J. E. Danieley, who praised the boys and their coaches for the fine record this season.

A special feature of the dinner was the announcement that the Elon gridgers had named tri-captains for the season just ended, choosing Bob Kopko, of Monessen, Pa., Lynn Newcomb, of Richmond, Va., and Bob Stauffenberg, of Morea, Pa., as co-leaders. Game captains directed play during the season.

Also announced was the award of trophies to Bob Stauffenberg as the most valuable player; to Lynn Newcomb, as the player with the most desire; and to J. B. Vaughn, of Graham, and Tony DeMatteo, of Pottsville, Pa., as the best blockers. It was the second straight year for Stauffenberg to receive the most valuable trophy.

Coach Sid Varney also listed players who had been awarded letters, including Tony Carcaterra, Inwood, L.I., N.Y.; Jack Henderson, Towanda, Pa.; and Turner Brosky, Punxsutawney, Pa., ends; Bob Kopko, Monessen, Pa.; J. B. Vaughn, Graham, and Ben Cabbage, Sumter, S. C., tackles; Tony DeMatteo, Pottsville, Pa.; Bob Hendricks, Danville, Pa.; and Jim McClure, Brackenridge, Pa., guards; Lynn Newcomb, Richmond, Va., center; Charlie Maidon, Cary, and Richard Bradham, Sumter, S. C., quarterbacks; Joe DelGais, Inwood, L.I., N.Y.; Harry Faust, Mahanoy City, Pa.; and Bob McLean, Rockingham, halfbacks; and Bob Stauffenberg, Morea, Pa., and Ronnie Kinsley, Towanda, Pa., fullbacks.

LENOIR RHYNE

(Continued From Page Three)

side line for the TD, and Kinsley kicked good for a 13-7 margin.

Other Bruin drives were halted by a strong Elon defense, and Elon's final score came near the middle of the final period when sparkling runs by Charlie Maidon featured a 61-yard drive in nine plays. Maidon kept on a sneaker play for the touchdown, and Kinsley kicked good for the final 20-7 edge. Two other Bruin drives were halted before the game ended.

It was difficult to name the stars of Elon's great line play, for the entire Christian forward wall was brilliant all night. Particularly notable was the fact that Coach Varney used only sixteen players in the triumph, with Lynn Newcomb, Charlie Maidon and Tony Carcaterra going full 60 minutes and with Stauffenberg playing more than 59 minutes.

CHALK-LINES

(Continued From Page Three)

that "the one big mistake his boys made was going on the field." He went on in a more serious vein to compliment highly the play of the Elon eleven, admitting that the Elon gridgers simply out-charged and out-fought the Bears.

North Dorm Is Campus Champ

The North Dorm tag football squad, which concluded its campaign with an unmarred 10-0 record in victories, clinched the 1957 campus grid title by defeating Tidewater, East and Carolina in the final week of play. Runner-up honors went to Tidewater, with a season mark of 6-4 in wins and losses.

Fifteen players wound up the season with 30 points or more in individual scoring, with Jerry Everton, of East, tops with 87 points, trailed by Pete Jones, of North, with 62 points. Also in the top five were Bucky Fleming, of Tidewater, George Allen, of North, and Art Ivey, of North.

Also among the leaders in order of scoring were Hank Carmine, Tidewater; Stuart Toms, North; Bill Reese, Virginians; Phil Libby, East; Larry Gregg, Tidewater; Larry Wilkinson, East; Roger Knapp, North; Stewart Cass, Carolina; Ted Eanes, Virginians; and Don Saine, Virginians.

NEWBERRY GAME

(Continued From Page Three)

to give Elon a score, but DelGais kicked out of bounds on the 10, and on its first scrimmage play, Newberry fumbled again, with Vaughn recovering on the 10.

Stauffenberg bulled to the one and went over on the next play to give Elon a 6-0 lead. Bob Kinsley's conversion attempt was no good.

Stauffenberg recovered a fumble on the Newberry 30 to set up the second score. Maidon passed to Faust to the four, and Stauff carried over from there on four running plays. Faust added the extra-point to give Elon a 13-0 lead as the second quarter got underway.

Two minutes, 20 seconds later, the Christians scored again. Newberry fumbled the kickoff with Bob Kopko recovering on the 13. Joey DelGais carried to the one on four plays and Stauffenberg ripped into the end zone.

That was all the scoring until the final quarter. Newberry hit paydirt with 12:15 left in the game by driving 76 yards. Spears scored from the one-yard line.

Hendricks recovered a Newberry fumble on the Elon 48 to set the stage for Elon's next touchdown. DelGais, Faust and Stauff combined to drive to the Newberry one, with DelGais going over from the one. Kinsley converted for a 27-7 Elon advantage. Newcomb's interception runback of 82 yards produced the final touchdown.

WHO'S WHO

(Continued From Page One)

Hillery Molsinger, of Kernersville; Joyce Myers, of Philadelphia, Pa.; Johnny Oakes, of Greensboro; Robert Orr, of Burlington; Eddie Robbins, of Greensboro; Linda Simpson, of Elon College; Rex Thomas, of Sanford; Phyllis Wallace, of Burlington; Louis Wilkins, of Lenning, Va.; and Jackie Williamson, of Townsville.

Art Department Offers Exhibit Of Class Work

The fine arts department of the college presented an exhibit of elementary art in Miss Lila Newman's art studio on the third floor of Alameda Building yesterday and today, showing work done by college students and also by youngsters in Miss Newman's junior art class.

The work of Miss Newman's Art 24 class was specially featured consisting of many and varied industrial problems, with color study as a main project. This course is designed to meet needs of elementary teachers as well as amateur artists, including basketry, china painting, stick printing, finger and splash painting and paste board pictures.

Among the works shown were paintings by several of Miss Newman's more advanced students, among them Jane Davis, Onita Frye, Nancy Williamson and Billy Burgess.

Those in Art 24 represented were Emma Allen, Vincent Bujan, J. C. Canupp, Pat Coghill, Sherman Earles, Willis Everton, Shirley Eggleston, Paul Heath, Vera Mae Jones, Roger Nardelli, Robert Orr, Doris Price, Nancy Perry, Bob Stauffenberg and Shirley Walker.

Dick McCarthy, Elon College student, who takes a turn at professional baseball in the summer months, led the Class "A" Eastern League in hitting last season with a .327 average.

Student Group Give To CARE

Evidently learning something besides history, the students of Dr. Avizienis' fourth-period European history class, were inspired at a recent class meeting to contribute for a Christmas gift to the people of war-ridden Europe. The gift was proposed by the students after a study of modern imperialistic policies.

The gift took the form of a $12 collection, which was given to C.A.R.E., the world-wide relief organization, to provide some bit of Christmas cheer for people across the world who might otherwise have none. A later collection was also set for the same purpose, and the suggestion was made that other classes might choose to hear and do likewise.

'MESSIAH'

(Continued From Page One)

called when loud-speaker equipment was rigged to channel the music to an overflow group which listened in the adjacent Elon College library building. Set as it is for a "Silver Anniversary" performance, this 1957 rendition could break all attendance marks.

"Coca-Cola does something for you, doesn't it."

You feel so new and fresh and good—all over—when you pause for Coca-Cola. It's sparkling with quick refreshment... and it's so pure and wholesome—naturally friendly to your figure. Let it do things—good things—for you.

BURLINGTON COCA-COLA BOTTLING COMPANY

"Coke" is a registered trademark.

© 1956, THE COCA-COLA COMPANY