

Speakers Are Listed For Graduation

The announcement of speakers for Elon's 1960 commencement has just been made by President J. E. Danieley, who stated that the closing exercises of this 1959-60 session will get underway on Friday evening, May 27th, and will continue through the weekend, closing with graduation program on Monday morning, May 30th.

Scheduled to deliver the commencement address to the graduating class on Monday, May 30th, is Dr. William B. Aycock, chancellor of the University of North Carolina, who is recognized as one of the outstanding leaders in the South in the field of higher education.

The baccalaureate sermon, which is scheduled for Sunday morning, May 29th, will be delivered by Dr. Nathanael Guptill, of New York, who is a leader in the General Council of Congregational Christian Churches.

Named "Alumni Speaker" and scheduled to deliver the address at the annual Alumni Banquet on Saturday evening, May 28th, is the Rev. O. D. Poythress, of South Norfolk, Va., who is a member of the Class of 1915. He has been an outstanding minister in churches of the Southern Convention for more than forty years.

The Alumni Day program on Saturday will be an all-day affair, featuring reunions of eleven Elon graduating classes of former years. The Class of 1910 will observe its Golden Anniversary at that time, other classes set for gatherings being those which graduated in 1895, 1900, 1905, 1915, 1920, 1925, 1930, 1935, 1940, 1945, 1950 and 1955.

Senators Are Elected For Coming Year

Twenty new members of the Student Senate were named in the final campus election of the year, which was held on Thursday, April 28th. The senatorial list included five members from each of the returning classes, who will serve along with the class officers in the Student Senate during the coming 1960-61 term.

The new senators from the rising senior class include Glenda Bumgardner, of Burlington; Robert Biolousy, of Monessen, Pa.; Ed Green, of Middletown, Del.; Tony Markosky, of Mahanoy City, Pa.; and Douglas Scott of Durham.

Those who will represent the rising junior class are Doris Faircloth, of Fayetteville; Sandra Neighbors, of Forest City; Pat Kelly, of Pleasant Ridge, Va.; Don Rankin, of Miami Beach, Fla.; and Tommy Sears, of McLeansville.

Named to the Senate from the rising sophomore class were Nabill Abu-Aitah, of Jordan; Bob Burts, of Reidsville; Bruce Emerson, of Arlington, Va.; Dick Purdy, of Hedgewater, Md.; and Kathryn Thomas, of Franklinville.

These three class delegations were installed in office along with the executive officers of the Student Government, members of the Honor Council members of the Student Council and executive officers of each of the classes in ceremony in the chapel last Monday morning.

William Faries
Junior Escort

Faye Gordon
Junior Attendant

Jean Loy
Queen

Robert McLean
King

Kay Hughes
Senior Attendant

Zac Walker
Senior Escort

Eddie Burke
Junior Escort

Judy Samuels
Junior Attendant

Robert King
Royal Escort

Martha Langley
Maid-of-Honor

Winnie Ann Watson
Senior Attendant

Marty Collins
Senior Escort

Elon Holds May Day Event Tomorrow

Shakespeare Show Set May 19-21

The Elon College Players are preparing for their fourth and final feature production of the college year, with the production of Shakespeare's "Othello" to be presented in the Mooney Chapel Theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, May 19, 20 and 21st.

The show will come as a final one under the direction of Prof. Melvin E. Wooten, for the popular director has announced that he will not return to Elon next year. He has directed the student dramatic activities here for five years and has produced many of the most successful shows in Player history.

The cast for "Othello," which has already started rehearsals for the show includes Eugene Gold, of New York, N. Y., as the Duke of Venice; Roger Becnarik, of Bayside, Va., as Brabantio; Fred Shull, of Burlington, as Lodovico; Reynolds Van Cleve, of Erie, Pa., as Othello.

Bill Troutman, of Lewisburg, Pa., as Cassio; Prof. Clyde McCants, of Elon College, as Iago; Frank Rich, of Burlington, as Rodrigo; Bob King, of Supply, as Montano; Judy Elliott, of Charlotte, as Desdemona; Sharon Glew, of Cheshire, Conn., as Emilia; and Jane Morgan, of Greensboro, as Bianca.

Summer Jobs

The Saladmaster Corporation, of Dallas, Texas, is interested in interviewing Elon College men for summer jobs. They state that one must have access to full use of an automobile to qualify for the positions, which will be open for work in any desired part of North Carolina. Anyone interested is requested to write Mr. Walters, P. O. Box 5473, Raleigh, N. C.

Crowning Of May Queen To Feature Annual Observance On South Campus

Spectators at the annual Elon fall and "By The Sea" for summer. With each number there will be group dances, which were planned by Tommy Elmore, member of the senior class, who has done the choreography for the pageant.

All the color which the varying seasons of the year bring will be in evidence as the pageant which is entitled "Dancing Through the Seasons," unfolds as entertainment for the Elon College May Day rulers and their royal court.

Ruling as May Queen will be Jean Loy, of Elon College, and paired with her as the May King will be Robert McLean, of Rockingham. Chief attendants for the royal pair will be Martha Langley, of Staley, as maid-of-honor, with Robert King, of Shallotte, as her royal escort. They, along with the king and queen were chosen by student vote in a special campus election held earlier this year.

The senior attendants for the queen will be Kay Hughes, of Elon College, and Winnie Ann Watson, of Sanford, escorted by Zac Walker, of South Boston, Va., and Gordon Yancey, of Clarksville, Va. Yancey agreed to serve as a senior escort after Marty Collins withdrew from the program.

The junior attendants will be Faye Gordon, of Suffolk, Va., and Judy Samuels, of Burlington, escorted by William Faries, of Hamlet, and Eddie Burke, of Burlington. All of the class attendants and escorts were chosen in the same election in which students balloted for the May Day rulers.

The pageant, staged under the direction of Mrs. Jeanne P. Griffin, head of the women's physical education program on the campus, will feature both music and dances symbolic of the various seasons. The music will include "Button Up Your Overcoat" for winter, "Spring, Spring, Spring," for spring, "Autumn Leaves" for the

GORDON YANCEY

Gordon Yancey, of Clarksville, Va., will appear in the May Day pageant tomorrow as one of the senior class escorts, replacing Marty Collins, who withdrew from the program. The Maroon and Gold was notified of the Collins withdrawal after the May Day picture at the top of the page was ordered, too late to include the picture of Yancey in the larger picture.

Student Recitals

Student music recitals scheduled in the next few days include one by Wynn Riley, organist, of Columbia, S. C., next Tuesday, May 10th, and another by Douglas Scott, tenor, of Durham, on Monday, May 16th. Both will be presented in Whitley Auditorium, with the time 8:15 o'clock in each case.

Elon's Dean Reads Paper In New York

Dr. H. H. Cunningham, dean of the college and chairman of the Elon College History Department, has been invited to read a paper on Confederate army medicine on May 13 at the 134 annual convention of the Medical Society of the State of New York, which will be held at the Statler-Hilton Hotel in New York.

Making his second appearance before a New York medical group, Dr. Cunningham will read a paper entitled "Medicine in the Age of Space?" The paper will be presented before the society's section on history of medicine, which will be held at 9 a.m. on Friday, May 13.

In an earlier visit to New York on March 27, 1957, Dr. Cunningham read a paper on "The Confederate Medical Officer in the Field" at the quarterly meeting of the New Academy of Medicine. He has also read papers before the North Carolina Civil War Round Table, the Historical Society of North Carolina and the Medical Society of Alamance and Caswell Counties.

The Elon College dean and history professor is widely recognized as one of the outstanding authorities on the subject of Confederate military medicine, being the author of "Doctors in Grey," a volume on the southern army's medical service during the Civil War.

Home Ec Club

The Home Economics Club has been very active this spring, with plans for its annual fashion show and with delegates from the group attending the North Carolina Home Economics Association workshop meeting, which was held recently in High Point. Nancy Smith and Gayle Patterson were the club representatives at the High Point meeting, during which they were given a chance to learn much about modern home furnishings.

Student Body Leaders Take Over Duties

The newly elected officers of the Elon College Student Government were formally installed at ceremonies held in Whitley Auditorium on Monday morning, May 2nd, assuming at that time the duties which they will continue throughout the remainder of his year and through the 1960-61 college term.

Ed Boelte, a rising senior from Vernon Hill, Va., became the new president of Student Government at that time, succeeding Linwood Hurd, of New Britain, Conn., who had directed student body affairs through the past year.

Other executive officers of the student body who assumed duties this week were Cliff Hardy, of Franklin Park, N. J., who became vice-president, succeeding Vic Hoffman, of Philadelphia, Pa.; and William Hassell, of Jamestown, who became the new secretary-treasurer of the student group.

Members of the new Honor Council installed included W. H. West, of Henderson and Beverly Ward, of Rockville, Conn., for the senior class; Lennie Riddle, of South Boston, Va., and Phyllis Hopkins, of Reidsville, for the junior class; and Jerry Drake, of Greensboro, for the sophomore class. A freshman member will be elected and installed next fall.

Also installed were the new members of the Student Council, including C. G. Hall, of Leaksville; Carl Overby, of Reidsville; Penny Fuqua, of Elon College; Pat Jones, of Suffolk, Va.; and Dewey Andrew, of Snow Camp.

Officers of the various classes, who assumed duties along with the student officers, including the following:

SENIOR CLASS—David Plaster, Martinsville, Va., president; Steve McCauley, Fuquay Springs, vice-president; and Jane Keck, Burlington, secretary-treasurer.

JUNIOR CLASS—Mike York, Rameur, president; Helen Wright, Greenville, S. C., vice president; and Melver Henderson, Columbia, S. C., secretary-treasurer.

SOPHOMORE CLASS—Don Terrell, Richmond, Va., president; John Currin, Rowland, vice-president; and Judy Maness, Rameur, secretary-treasurer.

Dr. Danieley At Meet In Philadelphia

Dr. J. E. Danieley was in Philadelphia during the weekend of April 30th and May 1st, where he attended a meeting at the Sylvania Hotel of the National Advisory Council for Campus Ministry of the United Church of Christ.

The Elon president, in addition to representing the college, was official delegate for the Congregational Christian College Council, which includes representatives of the denomination's institutions of higher education.

At the Philadelphia meeting twelve representatives were named to represent Congregational Christian groups, among them the Division of Higher Education, the Fellowship of Campus Ministry, the United Student Fellowship, the Conference Campus Ministry Committees, the Women's Fellowships, and the staff which is responsible for campus ministry, these being in addition to the Congregational Christian College Council.

DAY OF READING

Students with last-minute review to do in preparations for examinations will get a break in having Saturday, May 21st, set aside as a "Day of Reading" between the close of regular class schedules and the beginning of spring semester exams.