Quakers Top Elon 8 And 4

The Guilford Quakers turned back the Fighting Christians 8 to 4 in a Carolinas Conference battle on the Elon field on April 18th, with the win giving the Quakers a sweep of the two-game series for the season.

Bill Burchette, Quaker pitcher, had a perfect game going for five innings before the Christians got to him in the sixth for three hits and three runs to spoil his bid for a no-hitter.

The Quakers were away in front with a solo run in the first inning on three hits, and they added other single-ton markers in the third, fourth and fifth and a pair of runs in the sixth to roll up a 6-0 lead.

Dempsey Herring was the only Elon batter to get two hits, with Joe Searcy pacing Guilford with three singles.

The line score:
Guilford 101 112 200 8 11 2
Elon 000 003 100 4 4 3
Burchette and Scott; Beale, Kirchgessner (7), Pecora (8) and Brady. LP—Beale.

STUDENTS SIGN AS RED CROSS BLOOD DONORS

Elon students (with backs to the camera) are shown as they signed up to donate blood on the occasion of the visit of the Red Cross Bloodmobile to the Elon campus on Tuesday, April 18th. The visit proved a very successful one, with students, faculty and others of the college community giving 140 pints of blood during the day.

Boone In Semis At Chapel Hill

Myra Boone, Elon senior tennis player, advanced to the semi-finals of an intercollegiate net tourney at Chapel Hill on April 22nd, when she defeated Susan Slover, of St. Mary's, and Margaret Taylor, of Peace, and then dropped a match to Janet Newland, of UNC-CH, in the third round of the meet. The Elon netter then advanced to the second round of the Pinehurst Invitational tennis meet for women the following weekend.

There was excellent response by Elon students, faculty and towns-people when the Red Cross Bloodmobile paid a visit to the Elon campus on Tuesday, April 18th, with a total of 167 persons reporting to the blood center at Elon's Alumni Memorial Gymnasium and with 140 of them giving blood. Twenty-seven persons were rejected due to minor ailments.

The officials of the Red Cross blood program in the Burlington areas were high in their praise of SGA President C. V. May, Jr., who had charge of the arrangements for the Bloodmobile visit to Elon.

The Elon students made up the majority of the blood donors, with students giving 77 pints of blood. Other donors were members of the Elon faculty and residents of the community, including employees of several Elon community industrial plants.

Lenior Rhyne Wins 4-2 Tilt

The Lenoir Rhyne Bears used a two-run homer in the eighth inning to break a 2-all tie and gain a 4 to 2 Carolinas Conference victory over the Elon Christians on the Elon field last Saturday afternoon.

The Christians had scored first when they plated a single run in the first inning, only to have Lenoir Rhyne tie the score with another solo score in the second. Elon moved to the front again in the fourth on a walk and a pair of passed balls, but the Bears again knotted the count with a run in the sixth.

Both the starting pitchers went the route on the mound, with Lenoir Rhyne's Ralph Grubbs fanning four-teen and walking only three while scattering eight hits. Elon's Burgin Beale struck out eight and walked four while holding the Bears to seven safeties.

The line score:
R. H. E.
Lenoir Rhyne 010 001 020 4 7 0
Elon 100 100 000 2 8 2
Grubbs and Bengston; Beale and Mensch.

Herring Tops Elon Hitting For Season

Dempsey Herring, Elon third-sacker, is batting a robust .380 to pace the hitting for the Fighting Christian baseballers, who are now in the closing portion of a disaster-ridden season, which has netted only a 6-16 mark thus far. The Christians close their home schedule with Lenoir Rhyne on the Elon field tomorrow.

The runner-up honors in individual hitting belong to Danny Pendry, a sophomore outfielder, who is batting .359 for the year. No other Christian is within a hundred points of these two leaders, and the Elon squad as a whole is batting only .205 for the year.

Mike Spillane, who has seen duty at both shortstop and outfield posts, is pacing the RBI standings with 10 runs batted home, one ahead of Jim Freisinger, freshman second baseman, who has batted 9 of his mates over the plate.

Freisinger is knotted with Marshall Montgomery for the homerun lead, each having banged a pair of circuit blows. Danny Pendry has three doubles and two triples to lead both those categories.

Chris Pecora, freshman righthander, has appeared as a pitcher in half the Christians' 22 games and has been credited with exactly half of the six wins. Other wins have been divided among Steve Bird, Paul Amundsen and Joe Byrtus, each credited with a single mound victory.

The individual batting marks for the Elon squad follows:

Name	AB	R	H	Ave.
Herring	50	5	19	.380

Presbyterian Wins 2 Tilts

The Elon Christians dropped a pair of one-run decisions to the Presby-terian College Blue Stockings at Clin-ton, S. C., on April 21st, losing 3 to 2 in the opener and going down 4 to 3 in the nightcap battle.

The Presbyterian nine's Jack Free tossed a one-hitter at the Christians in the first game, but Blue Hose mis-cues contributed to Elon's two scores in the first inning. The Hose got back one run in that same frame and added two scores in the second to win the 3 to 2 battle.

The Christians forced the second battle into extra innings when Dempsey Herring hit a seventh-inning triple and stole home, but Presbyterian came through with the winning run in the eighth. The Christians had scored twice in the second, and PC got three runs in the sixth.

Andes Installed In Church Post

Dr. William J. Andes, of Atlanta, Ga., for many years pastor of the Elon College Community Church in Elon College, N. C., was installed as conference minister of the new South-eastern Conference of the United Church of Christ in ceremonies held at the Pilgrim Congregational Church in Birmingham, Alabama last Satur-day night.

Dr. J. E. Danieley, president of Elon College, delivered the address at the installation ceremonies for Dr. Andes, and he also conducted the communion meditations at the Sun-day morning services at the Pilgrim Congregational Church.

Spring Weekend

Appearing with "The Temptations" will be "The In-Men, Ltd. Band" of Burlington. The "In-Men" have recently released two records, "Take A Look At My Baby" and "I Don't Love You" and have appeared at every major college campus in the Southeast. Admission for the concert will be $1.50 for all non-students excepting dates of Elon students.

The Student Government Association expressed gratitude to Gary Knapp and Carol Lupinnacci for planning this Spring Weekend. Thanks are also extended to the management and staff of the cafeteria for the meals provided and appreciation goes to every member of the student body and faculty who helped in staging this program.
