

Elon Swamps Cats 92 To 73

RUGGED ACTION IN WIN OVER WESTERN CAROLINA

Elon's Tommy Davis may be down on the floor, but he is definitely not out of the rugged action as he fights to hang onto the ball against two of the Western Carolina Catamounts during Elon's 92 to 73 victory on the Elon court on Saturday night, February 3rd. Noble Marshall is the other Elon player, who is watching the struggles of Davis from his seat on the floor.

Goedeck Tops Elon Attack In Triumph

Balanced offense which put five Elon men in double figures paid off with a lopsided 92 to 73 triumph over the Western Carolina Catamounts here at Elon on Saturday night, February 3rd, when the Christians hit a brilliant 60 per cent of their floor shots for the win.

Henry Goedeck and Tom McGee were the big guns in the Fighting Christian assault, with each of them hitting on nine of fourteen floor shots, with Goedeck finishing with 24 points and McGee with 21 counters.

The Christians moved ahead for keeps at 5-3 after two minutes and never trailed after that. They were out front by 43-32 at the half-time and they widened the margin in the closing minutes.

Following Goedeck and McGee in the Elon scoring attack were Bobby Atkins with 15, Tommy Davis with 13 and Richard McGeorge with 10 points. Goedeck and McGeorge led the Elon rebounding.

This balanced attack overcame the fine scoring of Western Carolina's Henry Logan, who banged in a total of 42 points for the night to maintain his individual scoring leadership in the Car-

SPORTS SPOTS

People are passing the big showcase in the foyer of the Long Student Center with new gleams of joy and some degree of surprise on their faces as they view the recent addition to the showcase.

Yes, you have guessed it, the subject of the joy and pleasant surprise is the picture of the newest proposed building for Elon College, a new structure that is soon to rise outside our so-called "brick jungle." It is a new and modern gymnasium which is destined to be of tremendous benefit to Elon's athletic program.

It is true that Elon has long had one of the largest gymnasiums in the conference, but its size was primarily provided for basketball crowds, and the new gymnasium pictured in the foyer of the Student Center will do much to eliminate the crowded atmosphere of activities in the present Alumni Memorial Gym on Saturday and Sunday afternoons.

Everyone likes a little exercise, but everyone has the same idea at seemingly the same time, and this has presented a problem in the effort to crowd large numbers of boys playing basketball on the floor of the present gym at the same particular time.

The present juniors and seniors may find themselves at a slight disadvantage, for it is understood that the new gymnasium will not be completed and ready for use until they have graduated, but the new structure will be a great benefit to the members of the current freshman and sophomore, who may get a chance to try out their muscles in the new facility.

The new physical education building will contain a regulation size indoor swimming pool, all of which will eliminate the necessity to play in the naturally created water holes around the campus.

It will also furnish a new full-size gymnasium, (Continued on Page 4)

Pfeiffer Five Wins In Upset Cage Tilt

The Pfeiffer Falcons broke away to an early lead and went on to upset the Elon Christians 82 to 78 in a Carolinas Conference cage battle on the Falcon court on Monday night, February 5th.

The Christians fell behind in the early minutes of the battle and were forced to play a futile game of "catch-up" all night, and erratic shooting through much of the battle foiled all efforts by the Maroon and Gold quintet to overhaul the flying Falcons, who were showing some fantastic shooting.

Harry Comer, Pfeiffer freshman, hit six straight shots from more than 30 feet out, as he led the Falcon scoring with 27 points for the night. Three other Falcon players were also in double figures, with Jim Burkhardt hitting 18 points and Dwight Hinnant and Dwight Kincaid each banging in 12 points.

The Christian cagers also showed four men in double figures, but it was case of too little too late. Henry Goedeck topped the Christian scoring with 25 points, most of which came in the second half. Other Elon leaders were (Continued on page 4)

Christian Mat Squad Loses At Pembroke

The Pembroke State wrestlers moved ahead in the early matches and then held off a determined band of Elon College matmen to win a 19 to 14 decision in a dual grappling engagement on the Pembroke mats on Friday night, February 2nd.

The home standing Braves won the three opening matches on decisions and took the fourth on a decision for a 14-0 lead before Elon's Tom Jernigan gained a fall over Pembroke's Tom Cranfield. Bill Franks, Mike Hughes and Ralph Moore then won decisions in three late matches for Elon. Elon forfeited the 177-pound match due to injury.

The summary:
123 POUNDS: Goss (P) decision over Dean.
