Dr. Stokes Attends Several Meetings

Dr. Durward Stokes, member of the Elon College history faculty, has had a busy schedule during this fall term, with several special activities in addition to his regular teaching schedule.

He has attended no less than three special programs during the term, beginning with attendance at the Conference on Early American History held at Clemson University in South Carolina on October 3rd and 4th.

He also represented the national Pi Gamma Mu Society at the inauguration of President Mill at Bennett College in Greensboro on October 12th, and he attended the annual meeting of the Southern Historical Association, which was held in New Orleans, La., during the period from November 6th to 11th.

Saturday Is Deadline For GRE

Sign-Up

All seniors in both day and night classes who plan to graduate in either May or August of 1969 must make application in the office of the Dean of the College not later than Saturday of this week to take the Graduate Record exams.

Those members of the senior class who have taken the advanced test of the Graduate Record series must still make application for the area test. The Graduate Record Examinations will be given on Friday, February 28th, and Saturday, March 1st.

FRAT QUEEN

URSULA ANULIS

Ursula Anulis, Elon College junior from Port Chester, N. Y., was named as "Sweetheart of Sigma Mu" this fall by an overwhelming vote of members of the Masonic affiliated fraternity, and her first duty was to serve as sponsor for the local fraternity group at Homecoming. Miss Anulis, an elementary education major, is a varsity cheerleader, a pledge of Pi Kappa Tau sorority, and a member of a number of SGA committees. She plans to teach following graduation.

VOLLEY BALL

The Staley Hall girls won the title in the volley ball contest staged by the WAA this fall, with Delta Upsilon Kappa second and Pi Kappa Tau third in the standings.

XMAS HOLIDAYS

to get underway on Tuesday, January 14th. That winter term will continue until Friday, February 7th.

With such a class schedule prevailing, the Elon College basketball team will be playing in the role of an "orphan" group, a team without a student body, in its first four games of the post-Christmas schedule, for the Christian basketballers will be playing initial games in January before the student body returns to the campus.

CHOIR WILL PRESENT 'MESSIAH' IN TWO CHURCHES

The Elon College Choir, which won the plaudits of two large groups of area music lovers with two presentations of Handel's "The Messiah" last week, is shown above. The student singers will travel to Durham and Fuquay-Varina this coming Sunday for two renditions of the great Yule season oratorio, appearing in both places under auspices of the local United Church of Christ groups and under the direction of Prof. Richard Apperson.

Choir On Road Trip

The solo roles for the Friday night presentation, however, and also for the coming Sunday trip to Durham and Fuquay-Varina, will be filled by Elon students or persons from the college's staff or faculty personnel.

The soloists for the Friday program included Dawn Chrisman, soprano, of Portsmouth, Va.; Nelda Shaw, soprano, of Durham; Linda Durham, soprano, an Elon graduate from Burlington; and Pat Pilkington, wife of Prof. Edward Pilkington, of the Elon faculty.

Also singing solo roles were Jack Cotten, tenor, a student from Fuquay-Varina; George Cannon, bass, from Newport News, Va.; and Robert Gwaltney, an Elon graduate and currently registrar of the college.
