

Forty-Four Football Players Get Letters For '68 Season

Forty-four members of the Elon College football squad were awarded either letters or stars for their service with the Fighting Christian grid squad during the 1968 season, a campaign which ended on a happy note with the upset win over Lenoir Rhyne.

Twenty-seven of the 44 Christian gridgers received stars as repeat awards, since they had previously been awarded letters. The other 17 players received their first monograms for play during the past season.

The letter winners included only four seniors, so the majority of them should be back for service another year, barring academic difficulties. Others included 17 juniors, 17 sophomores and six freshmen.

The award winners listed in alphabetical order were Don Allen, Fayetteville; Burgin Beale, Danville, Va.;

McGEORGE GOES UP FOR BASKET

Some of the action in Elon's 97 to 74 win over Catawba is shown above as Richard McGeorge (Number 52) goes up for a basket. Catawba's Darryl Parks and Elon's Bill Bowes are coming in for the rebound, just in case McGeorge misses.

Camels Down Elon

Showing small resemblance to the fast-moving combination that had trampled both Catawba and Guilford in two previous games, the Christian basketball squad experienced perhaps its coldest shooting streak of the year in losing a 97 to 75 battle to the Campbell Camels here on Wednesday night, January 15th.

The game was close for exactly seven minutes, but Campbell pulled ahead at 16-15 at that point, and Elon never caught up again. In the final thirteen minutes of the first half, the Christians could hit only four of twenty-three floor shots for a 17.4 percent average, and that lapse in shooting proved fatal.

The Camels were ahead by 18 points with a 44 to 26 score at the half-time, and the sharpshooting visitors widened that margin in the last half to the final 97 to 75 count. The Christians pulled within thirteen points of the visitors a couple of times, but that was the best they could do.

Allen McRae hit 29 points and Cordell Wise 22 points to lead the Camels to their wins, with two of their mates also in double figures. The Elon cagers had five men in the double-digit columns, but none of them could match the shooting of McRae and Wise.

Henry Goedeck and Noble Marshall each hit for 15 points to lead the Elon attack, but neither could hit like they did in battles with Catawba and Guilford. Other Christians in two figures were Tommy Cole with 14, Bill Bowes with 13 and Richard McGeorge with 10 counters.

Five Cagers Scoring High

The Elon Christians had all five starters in the double-figure scoring after twelve games of this 1968-69 cage campaign, with Captain Bill Bowes showing the way to the Christian shooters with 205 points and an average of 17.8 points per game after the Campbell tilt here.

Other players in double digits and their figures were Richard McGeorge, with 15.8; Tommy Cole and Henry Goedeck, each with an average of 12.9; and Noble Marshall, with an average of 11.6 points per game.
