Senator Bill Walker Gives Advice In Farewell Speech

By Al Zink

A split-session of the Elon College Senate met Nov. 19-20 and the meeting opened with the resignation of Senior Senator, Bill Walker.

In addressing the Senate, Walker reminded members of the importance of the checks and balances system which he felt was necessary to the proper functioning of the Senate. Walker asked the Senate to keep three ideas in mind when making decisions which affect the college: 1) work with Dr. Danieleley because he can "make or break" the SGA, and without his help the SGA can't accomplish anything 2) think of the students whom you are representing when making decisions 3) always consider the public relations of the college and don't let a few mouth-pieces impress the public.

Walker concluded by reminding the Senators about the oath of office which each SGA official promised to uphold beginning with the words, "I hereby pledge my faith and honor that I will uphold the honor, integrity, and reputation of Elon College..."

His speech was well received by the Senators and as he left the Senate Chambers, he received a round of applause for his work in the Senate.

son to be brought before the Senate to be questioned concerning the use of SGA facilities in the promotion of the Vietnam War Moratorium.

Simpson admitted that the SGA had supplied the Moratorium Committee 1,000 sheets of paper, poster boards, and the use of the duplicating machine, but he assured the Senate that the materials used would be paid for by the committee. Firmani then asked Simpson if he had received permission from any of the SGA officers to use the facilities. Simpson said that he had received permission from both the President, Bill Comninaki, and from the Vice-President, Lee Loy. Loy, present in the chambers, denied that he had given anyone permission to use the duplicating machine; Comninaki was not present to confirm or deny Simpson's statement. Finance Chairman, John Paisley, then requested that SGA officers make sure that complete records are kept when any SGA facilities are used so that those using the facilities may be charged.

The meeting concluded with the questioning of Phil Larrabee concerning his selection of the newly-formed committee, the SSL (Student Senate Legislature). Larrabee stated that he chose the members according to outstanding qualifications

LR Bears Fail To Score

HICKORY -- No doubt about it.

Elon's Fighting Christians came here Saturday, Nov. 15 with one thing in mind: to win the Carolinas Conference championship.

And win it they did, 29 to 0, to capture the bunting for the first time since 1964 and hand Lenoir Rhyne its first shut-out since East Carolina turned the trick back in 1956.

The Christians didn't have a tiger by the tail but they sure had a bear by the fuzzy-wuzzies as they ran up a 16 to 0 lead in the first quarter, extended it to 23-0 in the second and then added a touchdown just for the heck of it in the fourth.

And while Jimmy Arrington, Richard McGeorge, Emery Moore and Grover Helsley were putting the points on the scoreboard, Elon's defensive team had one of its finest hours as it denied the Bears access to the Elon goal-line and set up two touchdowns with pass interceptions.

Dickie Wilburn, Robert Perry, Pete McDaniel, John Romano and Sanford Reveley spearheaded the up-front Elon defense that stopped LR's touted single-wing end sweeps and fullback spinners.

And the Fleet-Footed

Four -- Tom Jernigan, Larry Raines, Danny Watson and Marty Bonnett -- intercepted four Bear passes, the same number LR completed. Only 36 yards through the air was yielded by Elon's always stingy pass defense.

The victory enabled Coach Red Wilson's Fighting Christians to finish the conference season with a 5-0 mark. Overall Elon is 7-3.

"I never dreamed we could shut them out," said Coach Wilson, dripping wet from a forced trip to the shower by jubilant Elon gridders.

"But I was so sure we would win that I brought a change of clothes. I anticipated this 'victory shower'," he said, pointing to dry apparel.

"It was a great victory, a great one. We had the best rushing defense of the season -- it had to be to stop LR's Mike McRee, Carl Bartles and Mike Porter."

Wilson, who coached single-wing football so long that he probably anticipated every move by LR's offense, said his game plan was very simple.

"I knew we had to stop their best player and their best play and then hope that everything else fell into place. We had to stop Bartles through the middle, and we had to stop McRee on tailback end sweeps."

The Elon line probed up to both tasks and when
