'Laugh-In' Award Here

The cynosure of attention this past week has been the stately object centered in the showcase of the student union.

Rumors began to mount as students viewed the lone statue. When observed closely the engraving read: "Flying Cickle Finger of Fate." The statue is presented weekly by the TV show "Laugh-In".

Senate Sets Up Committee

By FRANK BECK

November 20 the Senate held an informal meeting at 6:15 P.M. in Second Floor Long. Special reports, new bills, and announcements were presented.

A letter from Dean Berry was read concerning the problem of the damaged telephones in Smith Dorm. The Telephone company has threatened to remove all the telephones in the dorm

Lee Loy has formed a Committee on Committees that will check all other committees. This committee is designed to give the students confidence concerning the committees' work.

New bills were presented by the class senators. The first bill brought to the floor and passed concerned the investigation of the rules and policies of the Women's Interdormitory Council by a seven member committee. Another committee was formed to study the Physical Plant of Elon.

A bill was passed to have Sandy Newton as chairman of the Spring Weekend.

The last bill passed concerned a bond of $10,000 which will cover SGA officers. This bond will cost the SGA $75. It is designed to protect the SGA officers and the students of Elon.

The meeting was adjourned, and the next meeting will be held in December.
