SGA Vice President Bunny Carr says, "Spring Weekend '78 is looking good and the outside concert featuring Bill Deal and the Rhondells will be fine time." This year the SGA has designated April 7, 8 and 9 as Spring Weekend. Steve Eanes, chairman of the committee, says, "This year's Spring Weekend will be the best that Elon students have experienced in recent years."

He contends that the SGA has attempted to reach the majority of Elon students through a number of events.

The Elon-Lynchburg lacrosse match will kick off the weekend Friday afternoon at 3 p.m. Bill Deal and the Rhondells will follow at 8 p.m. in an outdoor concert at Harper parking lot. When midnight arrives, all-night movies at the "Whitley Cinema" will begin.

On Saturday another lacrosse match is scheduled for 2 p.m. Wet Willie and Mother's Finest will both appear in the Elon Gym at 8 p.m. After the concert, breakfast is scheduled for 1 a.m. in McEwen. Once again the "Whitley Cinema" will feature movies all night.

On Sunday a lacrosse match is set for 1 p.m. followed at 4:30 with a picnic under the oaks accompanied by blue grass music.

Tim Moore, president of SGA, says "This entire weekend can be yours for only $4, so come on and make Spring Weekend '78 an Elon weekend worth remembering."

Dr. Carlyle Marney, professor of religion at Duke Divinity School, will speak in Whitley on April 11 at 8 p.m. The topic of Dr. Marney's lecture is "Man: Myth-Bearer, Myth-Born."

On April 12 at 3:30 p.m. in Whitley, Dr. Ann Deagon, professor of classics at Guilford College, will present "The Poem as Cosmos — A Poetry Reading and Exploration of the Creative Process." Dr. Deagon began publishing her poems in 1970 and has since published six volumes of poetry and some 200 poems in various magazines.

After Dr. Deagon's presentation, Dr. John Dixon, professor of religion and art at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, will lecture on "The Forms of Myth and Meaning: A lecture Presentation with Slides Illustrating the Relation of Myth and Art" at 8 p.m. in Whitley.

Dr. John Sullivan, LAF adviser, says that he hopes to integrate the lectures with the visual form of life through blending the symposium theme with the creative arts. Dr. Sullivan says that Dr. Dixon visited the 1975 symposium and received great response.

Dr. Dixon was born in Richmond, Va. He spent five years in the military service where he traveled to India. In 1953, Dr. Dixon received his Ph.D. from the University of Chicago. He has published works on art and religion including an anthology entitled, "Religious Interpretation of Art." Dr. Dixon now resides in Chapel Hill.

The final lecture of the 1978 LAS will feature Dr. Nathan Schwartz, a Jungian analyst

Elections termed bleak

by Bryant Colson

The list of candidates for the coming SGA elections remains the same as last week, while the class officer and senatorial vacancies look bleak, as election day '78" approaches fast.

John Atkinson, a junior this year, is a strong candidate for SGA president, while another junior, Annette Metcalf, is in contention for the vice-presidency. Lee Berryman, a junior, has filed for treasurer.

Rhonda Apple, a sophomore this year, has filed for junior class president, and freshman John Reaves has filed for sophomore class secretary-treasurer.

Charlie Hopkins, chairman of the SGA elections board, says that he has yet to receive an application for a senatorial position.

The filing deadline for SGA officers is tomorrow. Speeches concerning platforms will be given during either the April 11 or 13 assembly. Elections are April 18 and 19. The filing deadline for class officers and senatorial positions is also tomorrow. However, for those candidates who are defeated in the SGA officer elections and who wish to run for class or senatorial positions they may do so. Elections for these positions will be held on April 25 and 26. According to Mr. Hopkins, interested individuals must file before the deadlines and turn in signatures in order to be declared candidates.
