

Cagers sport 3-1 record

by Vicki Blankenship

The Fighting Christian Cagers had victories over Wingate 68-61 and Lenoir-Rhyne 69-64 before they fell to Catawba in an overtime match 55-57.

Lee Allison and Drew VanHorn were head coach Bill Morningstar's standouts for the first three games, averaging 15.7 and 11.3 points a game.

Elon regained their winning game by defeating UNC-G 62-55. Steve Martinelli, Lee Allison and Drew VanHorn combined on offense to give Elon their victory over UNC-

G.

The Cagers will travel to High Point on Saturday, Dec. 1 and then to Mars Hill Monday, Dec. 3.

Golden girls win 3

by Vicki Blankenship

The Golden Girls' basketball team has come on strong in the beginning of their season, winning their first three games of the year.

Coach Mary Jackson is highly pleased with her team's performance.

The first victory was over Wingate 85-43. Elon came on smoking the nets and never weakened. Freshman Nuggie Dixon scored 32 points as a standout.

Elon hosted the H&R Block Women's Thanksgiving Tripleheader on Nov. 23 and 24. Missouri Western, East Tennessee State, N.C. State, Pfeiffer, A & T University and Elon were the teams in the event.

The Golden Girls won their two games, making their overall record 3-0. The two victories in the tripleheader were over Missouri Western 96-65 and East Tennessee State 63-62.

Tonight the Golden Girls will host Wake Forest at 7, and Dec. 1 they will travel to High Point to play the nationally known Panthers.
