

The Pendulum

Great American Smokeout
today

Volume VIII Number 12

Elon College, Elon College, NC 27244

Thursday, November 19, 1981

Joni Joram crowned queen in homecoming activities

The crowd gazed toward the sky as colored smoke and parachutes with bright designs floated down towards the stadium. The Winston-Salem State band dressed in red, black and white uniforms vied for the audience's attention as they treated the crowd to a program of unconventional top 40's music.

Nervous coeds with escorts stood on the track straining to see who would be Elon's Homecoming Queen. Finally, a smiling Joni Joram was crowned as the Homecoming Queen for 1981-82.

All of these events marked the homecoming game activities that took place on Saturday, Nov. 14, in Memorial Stadium. Joni, a senior representing Sigma Pi fraternity, was escorted by James Kouchinsky. She is also a sister of Phi Mu sorority.

Amy Burch, a sophomore, escorted by Jay Gabbert, was the first runner-up, representing Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity. Lisa Cannady, a senior, escorted by Andy Davis, won second place representing the Inter-Fraternal Council.

A tie for third place resulted in two winners. Jenny Yeshnick, a sophomore, escorted by Robert Wentz, represented the West Area of the Elon campus. Also, Lydia Grace, a senior who was escorted by George Holmes, won third place for Alpha Sigma Alpha.

It turned out to be a day for winners as the Elon College Fighting Christian football team showed the Winston-Salem State Rams how it won the NAIA championship last year by defeating them, 30-20.

Prior to the crowning of the Homecoming Queen, seven alumni were inducted into the Elon Sports Hall of Fame. Inductees were Warren Burns, class of 1977; Luther Conger, class of 1955; Charles Swicewood, class of 1955; Mike Little, class of 1963; and Ed Wheless, class of 1973. Two deceased alumni were also inducted: Joe Tomahcheck, class of 1950 and John Carroll, "Cap Clark", class of 1930.

See photos on page 4.

HOMECOMING QUEEN — Joni Joram, representing Sigma Pi fraternity, beams after being selected as Queen. Her escort is James Kouchinsky. Photo by Ron Kruppa.

College Bowl generates 'mega-fun'

by Belinda Peoples

"Toss ups are worth 10 points, and bonus questions are worth up to 40 points. Heeere's the whistle..." College Bowl has begun.

The Harper Area Council held its first College Bowl '81 last Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday. Each hall in Staley and Moffitt dorm was represented as a team of four contestants. Ten teams participated in College Bowl '81.

Sample questions were based upon research of the Elon College faculty. "You form a little zoo of your own with a bear, a wolf, an otter and a lion. For 10 points, how many different mammalian orders are represented?" "Time!" yelled Suzanne Stevens, the official timekeeper.

"The answer is one," Jim Hackney the M.C. confirmed. "The order is carnivora."

The next question: "Judith Stern defined it as a 'comb life gives you after you lose your hair.' Oscar Wilde said it was the 'name everyone gives their mistakes.'"

Sleeze Bag, a member of second Moffitt buzzed for the answer. "It is experience," he announced emphatically.

The round ended with a blow of the whistle.

Audience participation was ecstatic. "Please, if you know the answer to the questions, keep them to yourselves. If the answers are shouted out, the question will have to be disqualified," reminded Hackney.

Bill Hall, captain of the champion team, the third floor "Zoo Crew" of Moffitt, described College Bowl '81 as a "friendly competition, where you have mega-fun and maybe even learn a little bit." Members of Hall's team were Mark Crawmer, Kevin Clark, and Jim Laine.

Hall's team racked their brains against the second floor team from Moffitt for the finals Thursday. The runner-up team consisted of Gerry Elks (captain), Greg Wright, Bill Winston and Ed Marks.

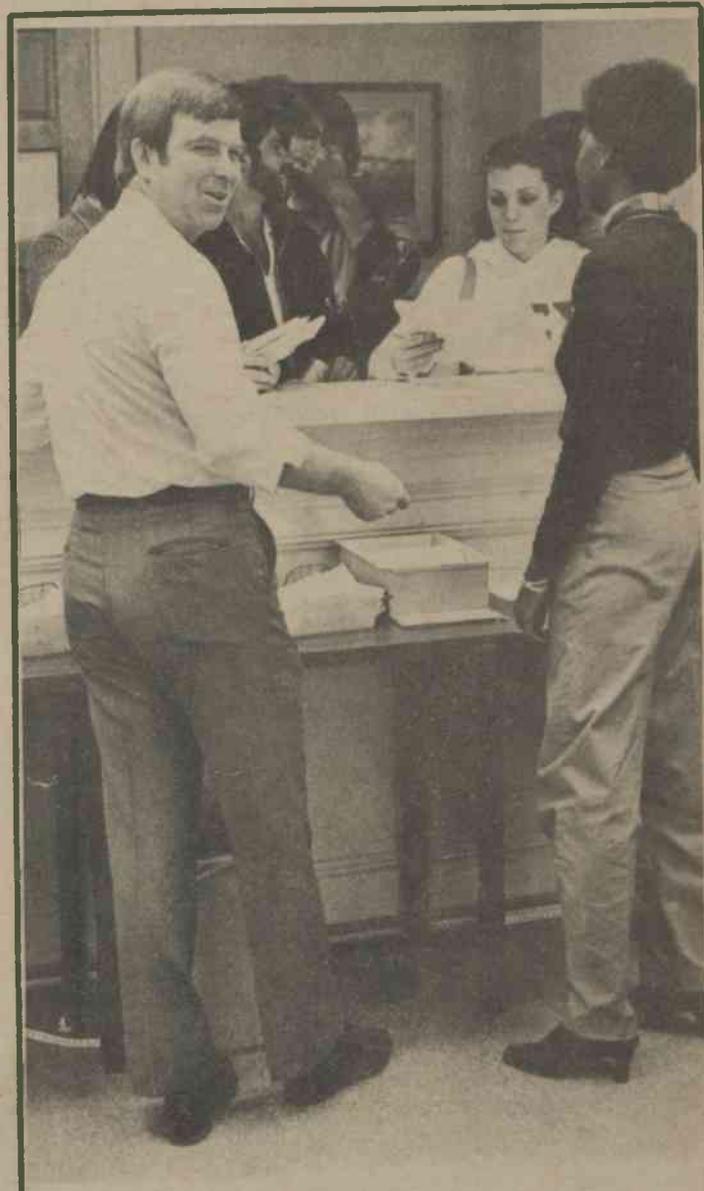

Cheryl Ebert and Virginia Evans have watched "MASH" for years, "but," exclaimed Cheryl, "I never knew what those initials stood for. Now I know. They stand for Mobile Army Surgical Hospital."

Suzanne Stevens, area coordinator of Harper Center, would like to see College

cont. on p. 8

COLLEGE BOWL — The Sleeze Bags engage in an intellectual meelee during the College Bowl tournament. Photo by Nader Hamidpour.

Clear line to classes

Mark Albertson, registrar, and Denise Currie, in above picture, help students through the pre-registration process. Pre-registration has been much smoother this semester according to Albertson, who extended the registration period from seven to eight days. Photo by Nader Hamidpour.