

The Pendulum

Thursday, October 4, 1984
Volume XI, Number 5

Homecoming Preview

Dances, game highlight weekend

By Loretta Bivins
Staff Writer

After Elon's victories over Carson-Newman and Lenoir-Rhyne, the Fightin' Christians are faced with a new challenge at Saturday's Homecoming game as they tackle the undefeated Quakers of Guilford College.

The football game is only part of the activities this Homecoming weekend, however. Activities begin with the 11th Annual Alumni Golf Tournament on Friday.

The tournament will take place at Alamance Country Club with an entrance fee of $8 for club members and $15 for nonmembers. The pro shop at the club will be taking phone calls for tee-times beginning at 9 a.m.

Last year, the bad weather discouraged some people from participation in the tournament, but "this year if the weather's good, I expect about 100 or so participants," says King White, director of alumni and parent programs.

Friday night at the Best Western, Johnny White and the Elite Band will be entertaining students at the SGA Homecoming dance. SGA President Bob Moser describes the band's music as "top 40 and funk."

Tickets for the dance will be available in the Long Center for $7 a couple and $4 for singles, but they can also be purchased at the door. "All students are welcome," says Moser, and alcoholic beverages will not be served" so that students who are underage can also attend.

The dance will be from 8 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Elon will be inducting five new members into Sports Hall of Fame in Whitley Auditorium on Saturday at 10 a.m. "The induction will bring back a lot of the Hall of Fame alumni," says White.

The new members are Glenn Ellis ('74), former football player; Robert Haithcox ('53), basketball; Carroll Reid Jr., ('53), baseball and football; Lawrence Trautwein, ('73), basketball; and Shirley S. "Red" Wilson, ('35), who was head football coach and the director of athletics at Elon.

The ceremony is open to the public without charge.

An open house for former staff members and faculty of the campus radio station WSOE will take place at 10 a.m. Saturday. Staffers of WSOE's predecessor, WELN, are also welcome. Years ago, the call letters WELN were chosen because they were the closest available to ELON, according to White, but later "those call letters were taken by someone else."

Refreshments will be served at the open house, which will take place in the Harper Center.

Beginning at noon, a picnic lunch for students and visiting alumni will be served on the lawn in front of McEwen Dining Hall.

The football activities begin at 1:30 p.m. with the introduction of the 1984 Homecoming Court while Elon's Showband of the Carolinas performs during the pregame show.

At 2 p.m., the Homecoming game begins. "I expect this will be the biggest crowd we've ever had," says White, referring to the number of alumni who will be returning for the game. "It seems each year, it keeps getting bigger and bigger."

Open to all organizations will be a banner contest during the game. Three members of the faculty will judge these banners, and they will award $50 to the best one. Second place winners will receive $30, and third place, $20.

The loudest cheerers at the game will also receive a $30 prize for their enthusiasm in the spirit contest.

The new members of the Sports Hall of Fame will be introduced after the first quarter, and the 1984 Homecoming Queen will be crowned by Gloria Goode, last year's Homecoming Queen, at half time.

The Embers, a popular beach-music band, will be featured at the Alumni Homecoming Dance on Saturday night from 9 p.m.-1 a.m. to complete the Homecoming activities.

Says Moser, "I hope people will be excited and involved at this year's homecoming."

Photo by Stuart White

On the Road

Democratic vice-presidential candidate Geraldine Ferraro spoke before a capacity crowd in Greensboro Monday. Her historic appearance marked another turn in the battle between Mondale and Reagan. See story page 16

34 candidates vie for Homecoming queen title

By Vicky Jiggetts
Student Affairs Editor

A total of 34 women are candidates for the 1984 Homecoming Queen title. The crowning will take place during half-time on Saturday at the Homecoming football game. Gloria Goode, last year's queen will crown the new queen.

Candidates and the organizations which they represent are as follows: Mary Alston, the GENTS; Marcey Altmen, SUB; Sheila Bailey, BSU; Tracey Black, Elon College Outing Society; Darla Bray, Alpha Sigma Alpha; Melinda Brown, Sigma Pi; Pamela Brown, Black Cultural Society; Dana Collins, Junior Class; Rose Davis, West Area; Carol Eaton, MENC; Mary Ellis, Newman Society; Karen Freeman, Delta Sigma Theta; and Beth Godsey, Freshman Class.

Also, Amy Griswold, Harper Center; Heidi Gross, Phi Mu; Susan Hernandez, Sigma Phi Epsilon; Melinda Howard, East area, Allison Huddle, Tau Kappa Epsilon; Lisa Huffman, ROTC; Jane Marie Jones, Sophomore Class; Karen Jones, Civinettes; Cyndi Lawson, Phi Psi Cli; and Meredith Lee, Lacrosse Club.

Also, Janie McMillen, Zeta Tau Alpha; Kim Morehouse, SGA; Nancy Moreton, New Area; Leslie Nagel, Pi Kappa Phi; Andrea Orr, Kappa Alpha; Josephine Ragland, Gospel Choir; Janet Schroeder, Oaks Area; Annie Spaniol, Kappa Sigma; Maureen Sweeney, Senior Class; Karen Welzant, Sigma Sigma; and Pamela York, Alpha Phi Omega.

Writing

Goal is involving of all departments

New Chaplain

McBride opens himself to Elon

Elon undefeated

Christians win 47-6 over Bears

p12