'POPS' to feature Chamber Singers

The 10th anniversary performance of the Elon College POPS will be held on Monday, Tuesday at the Ramada off I-85. The concert will be led by an all-you-can-eat at 6:45 p.m. The concert ends at 8 p.m.

Because of the contributions by the Student Government Association to the Music Center of North Carolina, $773, to pay part of the expenses of putting on this concert, all students can get in for a reduced price of $7 for the concert and $2 for the reserved seat meal and concert or at the door for just $10.

The program will include the Elon College Chamber Singers, directed by Dr. James Glenn.

They will perform during the dinner.

The Elon College Community Orchestra will present the concert which include works by Copland, Rimsky-Korsakoff, Wagner, Lionel Bart, Khatchaturian, Count Basie, Hughie Lewis, Gliere, Richard Hayman and Sousa.

Professor Terrell Cofield will sing an aria from RIGOLETTO, and the Emanons will perform as well.

The 10th Anniversary of Pops is put on by the MENC at Elon College to raise scholarship money for students. To date the MENC has raised more than $20,000 for this purpose.

Dr. Malvin N. Artley, professor of music, is the college orchestra director and the faculty sponsor of MENC.

The event is scheduled for Nov. 5 at 8 p.m. in Whitley Auditorium. There will be no admission charge.

Also involved in this production are Barbara Jacobson, flutist; Pat Sullivan, guitarist; Jane Wellford, dancer, and Arlene Goter, pianist. Goter will play a piano composition written by Dr. Don Gibson, chairman of the fine arts department to accompany Kerns in an Elegie by Robert Bridges.
