

- This Week at Elon -

DAY/DATE	EVENT	LOCATION	TIME
Friday Sept. 13-14	Soccer: Methodist Tournament	Away	2:00 pm
	Volleyball: Elon vs. Guilford/N C Wesleyan	Greensboro	TBA
	SUB Movie: Return of the Jedi	Harper Center	9:00 pm
Saturday Sept. 14	SUB Movie: Star Wars Trilogy	Whitley Auditorium	5:00 pm
Sunday Sept. 15	Newman Society: Catholic Student Fellowship	Long Student Center	5:30 pm
Monday Sept. 16	Library Orientation Tours: The Library staff encourages all new faculty, staff, and students to join one of the eight tours scheduled this week. This walking tour of the Library is designed to acquaint the campus community with the Library's services and floor plan. There will be four more tours scheduled for next week.	McEwen Library	4 & 6:00 pm
	Central America Teach-In A Peasant of El Salvador: This play dramatizes the plight of an aging hill farmer who is struggling to maintain the life he has always known in an El Salvador that is crumbling around him. Reception following in West Residence Hall.	Whitley Auditorium	7:00 pm
	Reader's Theater: Tryouts	Mooney Theater	7:30 pm
Tuesday Sept. 17	Central America Teach-In Chapel: Ann Calvin Rogers-Witte Minister, Community United Church of Christ, Raleigh Rev. Rogers-Witte visited Central America with a UCC leaders group in January 1985.	Whitley Auditorium	9:30 am
	Luncheon Seminar: "Forming Alliances with Central America." Was Hare Mr. Hare is President of Twin Streams Educational Center, Chapel Hill. He has organized a Nicaragua - Carolina marketing cooperative called Nicalina. He will offer its products for sale to benefit Nicaraguan relief efforts.	2nd Floor, McEwen	12:00 pm
	Culture Fair: Central America exhibits and literature tables will be located in the lobby of Long Student Center and McEwen Library.	Long/Library	1 - 4:00 pm
	"Human Rights in Central America," Rev. Rogers-Witte Slide presentation and workshop	Whitley Auditorium	2:00 pm
	"U.S. Policy Toward Central America," William Schofield Mr. Schofield is with the U.S. Department of State, Latin America Bureau.	Whitley Auditorium	3:30 pm
	"The Contra Forces in Nicaragua," Reed Brody Mr. Brody, author of Latin America - The Freedom to Write , led a four-month fact-finding mission to Nicaragua in 1984. He is a former assistant attorney general of New York state. His North Carolina tour is sponsored by CITCA, Carolina Interfaith Task Force on Central America.	Whitley Auditorium	7:00 pm
	Soccer: Elon vs. Pfeiffer College	Away	4:00 pm
	Elon in Review	Cable Channel 32 Greensboro Cable	6:30 pm
	Intervarsity Christian Fellowship	Student Cen. Lounge	7:00 pm
	Fellowship of Christian Athletes	Student Cen. Lounge	8:30 pm
Wednesday Sept. 18	Central America Teach-In Luncheon Seminar: Witness to War This film takes you behind rebel lines in El Salvador with one of the only Americans to work there -- Dr. Charlie Clements. It also takes you behind the lines of conscience which turned a soldier trained for war into a medical doctor trained to heal. This film has rare footage of the bombing of Southeast Asia and powerful documentary material from El Salvador. (30 minute film)	2nd Floor McEwen	12:30 pm
	Cultural Fair	Long/Library	1 - 4:00 pm
	"Central American Refugees," Terry Sorelle and Elizabeth Yeats The speakers are with the American Friends Service Committee.	Whitley Auditorium	2:00 pm

DAY/DATE	EVENT	LOCATION	TIME
Wednesday Sept. 18	"The Role of the Church in Central America," Joe Moran Associate Director, Carolinas CROP, Durham, Mr. Moran is a former educator and missionary in Central America.	Whitley Auditorium	3:30 pm
	"The Economics of Revolution: Land Use and Peoples' Armies," Dr. Robert G. Williams Dr. Williams is economics professor at Guilford College. His book, Cotton, Cattle, and the Crisis in Central America , will be published by UNC Press next spring.	Whitley Auditorium	7:00 pm
	Library Orientation Tours	McEwen Library	10 & 11:00 am
	"An Experiment with Shakespeare:" Dr. Robert Blake, Professor English at Elon, will give an introduction to Shakespeare's early comedy, The Taming of the Shrew , using video tapes of an actual performance. Professor Blake's presentation will prepare students to enjoy the North Carolina Shakespeare Festival's production on September 25.	Mooney Theater	2 & 7:00 pm
	Volleyball: Elon vs. Pembroke/A&T St	Home	6:30 pm
Thursday Sept. 19	College Coffee: Beta Beta Beta Honor Society will have various small potted plants for sale at the college coffee.	Scott Plaza Fountain	9:30 am
	Library Orientation Tours	McEwen Library	2 & 3:00 pm
	Shady Grove Band: Shady Grove's repertoire is a mix of bluegrass tunes, so-called "newgrass," popular and swing music, original songs and a little gospel music. This program is supported by a grant from the N. C. Arts Council. Come to the mini-concert at 4:00 p.m. and you will surely plan to return at 7:30 p.m. for the evening program. Admission: Elon ID or $3.00.	Under the Oaks (front of Whitley) Whitley Auditorium	4:00 pm 7:30 pm
	Elon In Review	Cable Channel 32 Burlington Cable	7:30 pm
	Gospel Choir Rehearsal	Large Lounge Student Center	7:30 pm
	Reader's Theater: Tryouts	Mooney Theater	7:30 pm

Formed in 1981, THE SHADY GROVE BAND'S accomplishments are numerous: three European tours, performances with national acts, a first LP album, and tours of clubs and colleges all over the East coast. The Shady Grove Band plays and writes bluegrass music, rooted in tradition, but with vocal harmonies and arrangements all their own. Their show will feature some Swing selections, an occasional Irish number and an abundance of humor.