

This Week at Elon

Brief

Admission to some programs in the Fine Arts Theatre is by TICKET ONLY. Students, faculty, and staff may pick up free tickets to these programs in the Fine Arts Building Office. Tickets for the Missouri Repertory Theatre's production of The Glass Menagerie on October 6 are now available.

Information for this page comes primarily from the listing published by the college's Office of Cultural Programs. To include your program in this listing, provide clearly typed information -- program name, date, time and place and a brief description -- to Becky Matthews at the Fine Arts Center office by noon each Friday. The Cultural Programs listing accepts notices only for programs open to the entire Elon community, but not regularly scheduled meetings of campus organizations or committees.

If you wish to place your announcement directly to The Pendulum, it should follow the same, typed format and be delivered by noon Friday to The Pendulum office, on the second floor of The Gallery at the corner of Williamson and Lebanon streets.

Investment Seminar

The Martha and Spencer Love School of Business at Elon College, in conjunction with Dean Witter Reynolds Brokerage Firm, is sponsoring an investment seminar September 28 and 29 from 7:30 to 9:00 p.m. in the Recital Hall of the Fine Arts Building on the college campus.

The seminar is entitled "How to Make Your Money Work Harder for You" and will be conducted by Kay Simpson, account executive for Dean Witter Reynolds in Greensboro and Winston-Salem. The seminar will cover strategies for tax savings, for increasing current income, and for long-term growth.

The public is invited free of charge.

Shadow Box

The Elon College Theater will present "The Shadow Box" October 8-12. "The Shadow Box", a Pulitzer Prize winning play of 1977, concerns three patients who are residing in a hospice for the terminally ill.

Bring Receipts for $$$$

Students can bring their book receipts to the campus shop by Friday in order to be eligible for a cash drawing equal to the amount of their books. The drawing will be held at the Long Student Center at 11:00 p.m. on Friday.
