

AOPi hosts chapter consultant

Epsilon chi Chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi will be hosting a Chapter Consultant Nov. 14-20, 1987. This young woman is a trained resource person, and a liaison between the local chapter and the international organization.

Julie Derby, from Kallispell, Montana, is one of eight recent college graduates serving AOII in this position.

Elon college is just one of the stops in a year-long tour of AOII chapters throughout the U.S. and Canada.

Miss Derby, who will receive her Montana State University Bachelor of Arts Degree in Speech Communications and Public Relations in December, actively served her own collegiate chapter as Membership Education Chairman.

Chapter Consultants work with the collegiate chapters and colonies of Alpha Omicron Pi, emphasizing community and campus involvement, leadership, and scholastic achievement.

Founded in 1897 at Barnard College of Columbia University in New York, Alpha Omicron pi has installed 156 collegiate chapters and over 200 alumnae chapters.
