

Hungarian Linguist To Speak

Istvan Kenesei, a noted Hungarian linguist, will speak Thursday evening "on Social Conventions and Language Conventions."

He will speak at 7 p.m. in the Recital Hall of the Fine Arts Center.

Kenesei, a Fulbright Lecturer at the University of Delaware, is host of a popular call-in radio show in his native Hungary, a program that deals with the peculiarities of language.

Kenesei will also conduct a seminar on the Noam Chomski's theories of structural linguistics at 3:30 Thursday afternoon in Carlton 202.

His appearances are sponsored by the Department of Literature, Languages and Communication.

Back to the future, Alamance Co. style

What kinds of growth can Alamance County accommodate in the next ten years? What is the future of health care in Alamance county?

These questions and others like them will be addressed by a panel of experts in "Back To The Future... Alamance County in the 1980's and Beyond," a discussion sponsored by the Alamance County Chapter of the North Carolina Leadership Forum. The panel discussion will be held on Wednesday, November 11, from 7:30-9 p.m. in the Recital Hall in the Fine Arts Center.

Speakers will be Charles Morris, Assistant Superintendent of Instruction for the Alamance County Schools; Tom Ryan, President of Alamance Health Services, Inc.; Robert Norris, Chairperson of the City of Burlington Comprehensive Plan Force; Margaret McCann, of McCann Real Estate; and Elmore, General Manager of Hill Mall.

Morris will speak on the future of education in Alamance County, and Ryan on the future of health care. Norris will address the development of a comprehensive land-use plan. McCann will discuss the future of economic development in our area. Elmore will discuss the future of retail in the county.

The discussion is free of charge and open to the public. A registration will follow.
