

This Week At Elon

DATE	EVENT	LOCATION	TIME
SEPT. 7	College Coffee	Scott Plaza	9:30 a.m.
SEPT. 8	Volleyball Coastal Carolina, SC Tournament	Away	11 a.m.
SEPT. 9	Women's Soccer Berry College	Away	1:00 p.m.
	Men's Soccer Berry College	Away	3:00 p.m.
	SUB Club	Back Door	9:00 p.m.
SEPT. 11	South Pacific Audition: Singing and non-singing roles available.
	Auditions for children 11 years old and under.	Yeager Recital Hall	4 - 6 p.m.
	Auditions for all adult roles	Yeager Recital Hall	7:30 p.m.
SEPT. 12	Fall Convocation with Atlanta Mayor Young. The entire college community will pause from its regular Tuesday schedule to gather for the fall convocation with keynote speaker Mayor Andrew Young. The topic of his address will be "Education for Public Service." There will be short talks by students John Barnhill and Katie Mafko on their community service experiences. Mayor Young is a United Church of Christ minister who, at age 57, has served as a civil rights leader, congressman, U.S. Ambassador and is now mayor of one of the fastest-growing cities in the United States.	Under the Oaks	11:00 a.m.
	South Pacific. Auditions for adult roles.	Yeager Recital Hall	7:30 p.m.
	Phil Woods Quintet In 1988 Phil Woods received the highest number of votes for best alto saxophone player in Down Beat magazine's annual International Critics poll. His quintet was voted the best acoustic jazz group by the same poll. Come hear their arrangement of be-bop and swing-era standards.	Fine Arts Theatre	8:00 p.m.
	Admission by ticket only. $8.00 or college I.D.
	Fellowship of Christian Athletes Fighting Christian Club Room	Alumni Gym	8:00 p.m.

TICKETS ARE NOW AVAILABLE FOR THE FOLLOWING PERFORMANCES

Tickets are available at the Fine Arts Box Office inside the Fine Arts Center between from 12:30 to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Phil Woods Quintet	Sept. 12	8 p.m.	Fine Arts Theatre
John McCutcheon	18	8 p.m.	Fine Arts Theatre
Concert for the Earth
The Chestnut Brass Company	21	8 p.m.	Fine Arts Theatre
Frederick Swann	26	8 p.m.	Fine Arts Theatre