

Women's soccer team heads for Berry College

by Sara Joyner

The women's soccer team began its season last Saturday against Boca Raton College. Even though the Fightin' Christians were defeated, they did pull off eight goals. Boca Raton scored 11.

The women travel to Berry College for a game Saturday at 1 p.m.

The men's soccer team kicks off its season Saturday at Berry College. The game begins at 3 p.m. After this game, the team will travel to Pfeiffer College on the 14th and then play at home against Catawba College.

The volleyball season is also here. The first volley will be on Sept. 8-9 at the Coastal Carolina (S.C.) tournament. The game begins at 11 a.m. The team will go from there to play Catawba and Carson-Newman on the 13th at Catawba.

The sport of football gets rolling on Sept. 9 at home. The opponent is Savannah State College and the action begins at 2 p.m. The Fightin' Christians then travel to Livingston University for another 2 p.m. game.

What Black Americans should know about cancer.

Every American needs to know about cancer. It's a disease that has an impact on most of us in some way.

However, cancer death rates among the Black population in America have been steadily increasing in the past 20 years with Black males having the highest rate of any group.

What does this mean to Black Americans? Simply, it means paying special attention to health and getting to a doctor immediately when something is wrong with your body.
