

Rob Whiteside/ The Pendulum

The Importance of Being Earnest

Todd Horman and Holly Good star in Oscar Wilde's romantic comedy presented by the Department of Theatre Arts. The play opens today at 8 p.m. in the Fine Arts Theatre, and will run Saturday at 8.m. and Sunday at 2 p.m.

Musical examines the changing black experience during wartime

Kristin Blass
The Pendulum

Ain't No Use Goin' Home, Jodie's Got Your Gal and Gone: Sayings from the Life and Writings of Junebug Jabbo Jones, Volume III will be presented at Elon College on Wednesday, April 15 at 8 p.m. in the Fine Arts Theatre.

Taking its title from a World War II marching song, Ain't No Use Going Home is a moving and humorous musical play studying the black experience in the American armed services.

The musical examines the changing perspectives of a patriotic father, who fought in World War II, his older son who fought in the Korean War and his bitter younger son who goes into hiding rather than serve in Vietnam.

Michael Keck and John O'Neal are presenting the show. Michael Keck is a composer, actor and sound designer with the Juneberg Theatre Project. O'Neal, playwright, civil rights activist and college professor, appeared at Elon in the spring of 1989.

The Black Cultural Society and the Office of Cultural Programs is sponsoring the event. The program is made possible from a grant from Alternate ROOTS and the National Endowment for the Arts Theatre Program. Admission is by ticket only: $8 or Elon identification.

Don't miss a culturally unique experience!

Christian organizations celebrate hope

Keri-Ann Thomas
The Pendulum

Elon's Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Intersarsity Christian Fellowship are uniting this week to help students deal with different issues in their lives and to spread the word about Christianity.

Both FCA and Intersarsity are campus organizations that promote Christian fellowship at Elon. Senior Anthony Akers, basketball player and president of FCA, says his organization is geared mostly toward the athletes at Elon, whereas Intersarsity is geared toward the common student.

"Celebrate Hope" is the theme of the campus outreach program that will be held Wednesday in Whitley Auditorium at 6:30 p.m.

"Our two organizations are coming together, with other students, to discuss the uncertainties in each others lives," Akers said.

The "Celebrate Hope" program will begin with contemporary Christian music followed by students' individual testimonies and special music performed by students.

Advisor to FCA, Drew Van Horn said that the program is intended "to show hope in the midst of a time of so much turmoil and defeat."

"Representatives from FCA and Intersarsity will speak about what the Lord means to them and how to find hope through the salvation of Jesus and Christianity," Akers said.

Other topics such as school and relationships will also be discussed in the meeting.

"We hope to target the ordinary students not familiar with Christianity," Akers said.

ON THE SCENE

Our Choice

■ The 10th Annual International Students Festival will be held at the UNCG campus on April 12 from noon to 8 p.m. The festival will feature different ethnic bands and dance troupe. There will be everything from First Native American dance to the Royal Hawaiian Orchestra. There will also be booths set up with Middle Eastern, Mexican and Chinese food. Admission is free. The Festival will be held on College Avenue and in Cone Ballroom of Elliot Center in case of rain. For more information call (919) 334-5371

Heading To Concerts

■ Blue Sister, a women's blues band from New Orleans, will be in concert at the UNCG campus from April 9-11. The trio combines traditional blues with original material and rockabilly tunes. For more information contact the box office at (919) 334-5371.

■ Tickets are on sale now for the Earth Buddies concert. The Connells, Firehose, Dillon Fence and Buffalo Tom will all be featured in Walnut Creek Amphitheatre's first concert of the season. Tickets are $8.50, $10.50, $12.50. Tickets are available at Ticketmaster outlets, Tracks/Record Bar and Starship Music. Charge by phone (919) 834-4000.

■ This week at the Lighthouse Tavern

Friday - Solar Circus
Saturday - Presence

■ This week at the Cat's Cradle
Friday - Wedding Presents
Saturday - OleSkies

At The Movies

■ Holly Hill Theatre - White Men Can't Jump, Basic Instinct, Straight Talk, Wayne's World

■ Cinema Theatre - Father of The Bride

Quote of the Week

Here is a supplementary bulletin from the office of fluction control, Bureau of Edible Condiments, Soluble and Indigestible Fats and Glutinous Derivatives, Washington, D.C. Correction of Directive 943456201, issued a while back, concerning the fixed price of groundhog meat. In the directive abovenamed, the quotation on groundhog meat should read ground hogmeat."

Bob and Ray

75%

clip & save

75%

ELON COLLEGE
The Campus Shop

Clip this coupon and receive 75% off on selected sweatshirts!

expires 4-17-92

75%

clip & save

75%

ALASKA SUMMER JOBS

Earn $3,000+/month in Fisheries. Free Transportation! Room & Board! Over 8,000 openings. No experience necessary. Male or Female. For employment Program call 1-206-545-4155 ext. 4064