were less than 1,000 people."

Assistant Director of Alumni and Parent Relations Laura Lewis and Director of reunions Greg Zaiser prepared an eventful weekend for alumni.

Each class has headquarters at a local hotel and in Moseley Center. Each class will meet Friday from 5 to 7 p.m. in its designated area for a wine and cheese reception. Registration packets and class memorabilia will be available.

Alumni will have the opportunity to attend the fireworks and student pep rally at 7 p.m. at Fonville Fountain.

Alumni are encouraged to watch the parade and attend the homecoming football game at Walter Williams High School.

Stepping back on Elon's campus, alumni may enjoy a variety of activities during this weekend's homecoming festivities.

Alumni and Parent Relations have prepared for Elon graduates from 1945, 1970, and 1985 to have class reunions during the weekend.

Bill and Janet Winstead are visiting for their 25th reunion. They have also helped prepare the activities.

"For us it's not so much an absence of 25 years," said Janet Winstead, who lives in Elon College. "The thing that's unbelievable now is how much the campus has changed. When we started, there

A tailgate lunch will be provided before the game Saturday. The alumni tailgating section will be on the grass near the parking lot.

Alumni are allowed to sign up for a parking spot before tailgating on Saturday, Draper said.

"We want them to feel like they're coming back home," Lewis said.

The main event Saturday evening is the Alumni Extravaganza.

Elon graduates and seniors are invited to attend a redecorated first floor Moseley Center.

Tickets to the Extravaganza are $10 for alumni and $5 for seniors.

Alumni and seniors can walk through the streets of New York

City. They will have the opportunity to eat hot dogs from a street vendor, make an ice cream sundae in an ice cream parlor, or relax in the fireplace lounge in Moseley.

There will be a cash bar. Seniors are asked to bring their student ID and a driver's license.

A dance is scheduled in McKinnon Hall. There will be a jazz trio, headed by music Professor Thomas Erdmann.

Sunday morning the reuniting classes are scheduled to have coffee with President Fred Young.

"I'm looking forward to having my friends together that I went to Elon with," said Maureen Becker, a program chair for the class of 1985.

If parking spots are not claimed by 11:45 a.m. they will be given out on a first-come-first-serve basis, Belardi said.

Flyers were sent to organizations with reserved parking spots, announcing the policies for tailgating, Belardi said.

Burlington police will be stationed monitoring the area, Tailgating Chair Stacey Draper said.

Police officials will not check IDs as long as students stay within the designated area, SGA President Michael Rodgers said.

Students must have a cup for their beverage. Cups can be purchased at tailgating for $1, Draper said.

Each group is required to designate a driver for the afternoon.

Groups must also provide one recycle receptacle and one garbage receptacle. They will also be responsible for cleaning up their area. Any group which does not clean up will be fined $20. Each group must have people signed up to clean their area.

The football game is scheduled to begin at 2 p.m.

Homecoming king and queen will be announced at half-time.

King and queen representatives will stand on the field, along with the faculty/staff representatives, Lyerly said.

The representative will not affect the organization's point value, Lyerly said.

Homecoming game starts at 2 p.m.

Hillel holds vigil for former prime minister

Stacey Ward
Staff Reporter

Elon's chapter of the Jewish organization Hillel held a candlelight vigil for the former Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin Monday night.

Jewish and non-Jewish students and faculty/staff came together to remember the man, said Jodi Pearlman, a member of Hillel.

Twenty-seven people present at the vigil sang Hebrew peace songs and said the mourner's Kaddish, a Jewish prayer that the bereaved say for the deceased, Pearlman said.

Students and faculty met outside Moseley at 7 p.m. The vigil here coincided with candlelight vigils held around the world, Pearlman said.

Pearlman and Darren Cooper, a member of Hillel, agreed that those who attended the vigil felt very much at one with those keeping the candles burning in Israel, and all across the world.

Rabin was shot and killed Saturday evening. Yigal Amir, a 25-year old Israeli Jewish law student is accused of the murder, Pearlman said.

According to the Jewish faith, Rabin should have been buried Sunday. However, the funeral was held Monday because many heads-of-state could not arrive in time, Pearlman said.

SELF-REALIZATION

JEANINE WOKE UP IN A COLD SWEAT SHE REMEMBERED GOING TO A PARTY AND GETTING SMASHED OUT OF HER MIND. THE QUESTION IS WHO IS THIS PERSON IN HER BATHROOM?

WHAT DID I DO? HOW DID I GET MYSELF INTO THIS MESS? WHAT ABOUT AIDS?

THEN MUCH TO HER RELIEF, SHE REMEMBERED THAT UNLIKE THE REST OF US SHE WAS JUST A CARTOON.

GET HIGH! GET STUPID! GET AIDS!
