

Top Weekend Movies

1. Life
2. The Matrix
3. Never Been Kissed
4. Analyze This
5. 10 Things I Hate About You
6. The Out-of-Towners
7. Go
8. Forces of Nature
9. Shakespeare in Love
10. Cookie's Fortune

Faculty and a guest to perform recital

Lisa McChristian
The Pendulum

Linda Cykert and Sally Duran will present an Elon College Faculty Recital. The recital will be held in Yeager Recital Hall on Sunday, April 25 at 3 p.m.

Cykert will perform on flute and Duran will perform on harp. The show will consist of six pieces: "Entr'Acte" by Jacques Ibert, "Berceuse" by Gabriel Faure, "Drei Tonstucke" by Willy Hess, "Sonata for Flute and Harp" by Alan Hovhaness, "Adagio from Bachianis Brasilieris No. 5" by Heitor Villa-Lobos and arranged by Jim Palmer, and "Hari no umi" and arranged by Josef Molnar. The selections range from the Baroque Period to the Twentieth Century.

Elon faculty member Linda Cykert is a member of the Greensboro Symphony Orchestra and a winner of the 1989 National Flute Association's Solo Masterclass

Association's Newly Published Music Contest in 1997, 1998, and 1999.

Cykert is associated with the Greensboro City Arts Program, is a Clinician for United Musical Instruments, and performs frequently in the Triad area.

Duran began her studies of the harp at the age of 11. She holds degrees from NYSU and Salem College.

Duran is currently second harp with the Greensboro Symphony Orchestra and has performed with the North Carolina Symphony, Roanoke Symphony, Wilmington Symphony, Piedmont Players, High Point Theatre, Greensboro Opera, and South Carolina Opera. Duran has been a guest Artist on the Lyceum Academic Series, the Gilmer-Smith Foundation Series and the Piedmont Arts Series.

Duran is currently Chapter President of the American Harp Society. Admission is free.

'Lend Me a Tenor' an excellent show

Carolyn Lampila
The Pendulum

Eight Elon College students displayed their acting and singing talents in "Lend Me a Tenor," Thursday through Sunday, April 15-18.

I met several members of the editorial staff of The Pendulum Friday night to support our colleague, Chuck Buckley and the rest of the cast.

Tito Merelli (Sam Wood), the famous and beloved Italian singer, comes from Italy to perform in a concert that Saunders (Buckley) is organizing. However, chaos erupts when Merelli appears dead.

At Saunders' demand, Max (Nathan Moore) disguises himself as Merelli and sings at the show. During the concert, Merelli wakes up and tries to get to the concert. However, no one believes Merelli when he said who he was because Max is doing a wonderful job at imitating him. Merelli dresses in an identical disguise as Max.

One of the highlights of "Lend Me a Tenor," was when Maggie, played by Amanda Warren, and Diana, played by Marisa Moss, both try to hook-up with Merelli. The only problem is neither one realizes they are coming on to both the fake and real Merelli who keep switching places.

At the end of the play, the cast performed a quick version of the play, including all of the hilarious highlights.

I laughed harder than I have in months throughout this performance. Wood and Moore were both hilarious as they interacted with Warren and Moss, who were also excellent in their roles. Corey Bradley played an excellent and hilarious role as the bellhop, who along with several girls, lusts after Merelli. Buckley

I have enjoyed all of the plays that I have seen in the last two years at Elon, and "Lend Me a Tenor" definitely did not let me down. Everyone I talked to after the performance agreed with me that all of the cast members were excellent.

Where It's At

On Tour

April 21: Ani DiFranco, Grady Cole Center, Charlotte

April 29: Willie Nelson, Asheville Civic Center

April 29: Jump Little Children, Brewery NC, Raleigh

May 4: 98°, Ovens Auditorium, Charlotte

May 5: Hard Knock Life Tour, Crown Coliseum, Fayetteville

May 8-9: Festival de las Americas, Kiwins Park, Ralfeigh

On Stage

April 23-24: "It's a Grand Night For Singing," Yeager Recital Hall, 8 p.m. Friday, 7 & 9 p.m. Sunday

On Screen

West End Cinema
(538-9900)

- The Out-of-Towners
- Analyze This
- Forces of Nature
- Never Been Kissed
- Life
- The Rage: Carrie 2
- Ed TV
- Twin Dragons
- Doug's 1st Movie
- Shakespeare in Love
- The Matrix
- 10 Things I Hate About You
- Baby Geniuses
- Go

WSOE 89.3 Top Ten

1. The Montgomery Burns Band "Dock of the Bay"
2. Vertical Horizon "Shackled"
3. Jimmy Eat World "Crush"
4. The Rentals "Getting By"
5. 3 Colors Red "This is My Time"
6. Teen Idols "Pucker Up"
7. Sick of it All "Sanctuary"
8. Built to Spill "The Plan"
9. Limp "Entertainer"
10. The Poster Children "Accident Waiting to Happen"

NOW HEAR THIS!

CD Releases

April 20

Cul de Sac
Elevator Through
Spitfire
Zhane

April 27

All-4-One
KRS-1
Rage Against The Machine
The Long Beach Dub All
Star's