Cultural Calendar

Thursday, February 24

Jerry and Tammy Sullivan

McCrary Theatre, 7:30 p.m.

This extraordinary father-daughter gospel team has performed uplifting music in small Southern churches and the Grand Ole Opry. The New York Times characterized the Sullivans' music as "hardpicking, string-crazy Southern gospel, as ecstatic and exuberant as the best rock-and-roll."

Monday, February 28

Art Reception: "A Painter's View"

Works by Tim Ford,

Margie Stewart and

Anne Wilkinson

Isabella Cannon Room, 5-7 p.m.

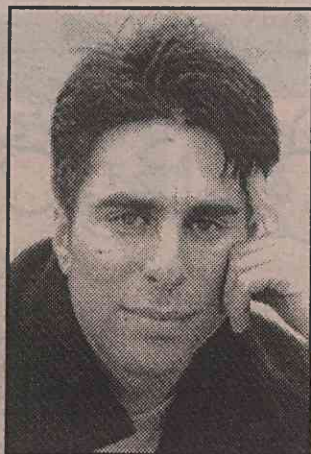

Tuesday, February 29

Adam Werbach, "Act Now, Apologize Later"

McCrary Theatre, 7:30 p.m.

Werbach, Elon's 1999 commencement speaker, returns to campus to encourage public involvement in conservation.

Werbach is the best known conservationist of his generation, having served as president of the Sierra Club.
