

Cultural Programs

Tuesday, March 27

Ricardo Cobo, guitar

Whitley Auditorium, 8 p.m.

Considered one of the world's top classical guitarists, Columbia born Ricardo Cobo has astonished audiences in the Americas, Europe, and Asia. With an impressive array of gold medals in almost every major international competition he is recognized for his interpretation of contemporary classical guitar music. A two time doctoral fellow at Florida State, Cobo also studied at the Peabody conservatory and the NC School of the Arts. The recipient of many awards for his numerous recordings, Cobo now serves on the faculty of the University of Nevada and divides residency between New York and Las Vegas. Sponsored in partnership with the Piedmont Classical Guitar Society. Admission by ticket only: $10 or Elon ID.

Thursday, March 29

Sheila Dauer, "State Sponsored and Private Actor Violence Against Women."

Whitley Auditorium, 7:30 p.m.

Sheila Dauer is the Director of Amnesty International Women's Human Rights Program. On the staff of the AIUSA since 1979, Dauer has directed the AIUSA's campaign on women's human rights in conjunction with the United National Fourth World Conference on Women, and has recently led major study on torture of women throughout the world. She will share her experiences. Sponsored by General Studies.

Thursday-Friday, March 29 and 30

Elan Presents A Little Torch Music

Yeager Recital Hall, 7:30 p.m.

Elon's vocal jazz ensemble, directed by Stephen A. Futrell, will perform a variety of solos, duets and ensemble pieces made famous by jazz vocal legends such as Billie Holliday, Joe Williams, Louis Armstrong, Sarah Vaughan, Ella Fitzgerald, and Nat King Cole.

Friday, March 30

Robert Morgan, reading

Carlton 206, 2:30 p.m.

Morgan, poet and fiction writer, will be reading from his work and talking about his novel Gap Creek, which was selected by Oprah Winfrey for her book club. Morgan teaches at Cornell University and is the author of seven books of poetry and fiction. Sponsored by the English Department and Colonnades,

Sunday, April 1

Opening Reception: Senior Art Exhibition I

Isabella Cannon Room, 1 .m. to 5 p.m.

April 8, 2001

12 to 6 p.m.

Admission $6

Intramural Fields

Performances by:

NINE DAYS

Blue Yard Garden Twisted Measure

Elon Dance Team Virginia Coalition

Food, Crafts, Prizes and Fun!

call the SGA office at 278-7254 for more details or to volunteer.

Sponsored by SGA and SUB.

Special Olympics 2001

Friday April 6

Call EV! at 278-7250 to volunteer!

Blood Drive:

Thursday April 5

Call EV! to volunteer

College Coffee

Tuesdays

9:50 to 10:20

Join friends, faculty and staff at the fountain for good coffee and fun conversation.

College Chapel

Every Thursday

9:50 a.m.

Yeager Recital Hall
Spring 2001 topic:
Spirituality in the Arts

Elon College
Campus Recreation
336-278-PLAY

CAMPUS RECREATION

Upper Commons @ 4pm

Culminating Festivities for Health & Wellness Week

SOFTBALL

Captains Meeting

Tuesday, March 27th

@ 5pm in KC 141

- UPCOMING CAMPUS REC EVENTS
- Indoor Soccer begins season after 3/26
 - Softball Captain's Meeting 3/27
 - Sea Kayaking Trip 3/30 - 4/1