

STYLE WATCH by Alyssa Martin

It isn't your wardrobe's fault you decided to go to school in Burlington, North Carolina. So don't punish it by only shopping in Burlington for the newest fashion trends. Every week my column will be here in The Pendulum to guide you through the best and biggest mall in the world, the Internet. If you visited the ice cream stand one too many times this summer, a new outfit might be just the motivation you need to get off your couch and into the gym. Many of your favorite brands have sales that are only offered online. Checkout the clearance at jcrew.com and click on Jcrew Gym to find really cute halter sports bras. My favorite shoes were on puma.com, fila.com and asicstiger.com. If you need a cute athletic watch go to nike.com, though they don't have the best of sales, or timex.com, and make sure you check out the watch with the special lap timer if you are a runner. If you don't have a lot of time to shop around, my top recommended site is ladyfootlocker.com. Look for the Nike wide stripe top in the sale of the week section. At this site the selection is huge.
