Jean Kilbourne,

"Deadly Persuasions: Advertising and Addiction"
Whitley Auditorium, 7:30 p.m.

Jean Kilbourne is a widely published author and lecturer on alcohol and tobacco advertising and images in advertising. Her lecture will emphasize and illustrate some of the messages behind many of today's advertisements. Sponsored by the Liberal Arts Forum.

Wednesday, October 24

An Evening with Bland Simpson
Yeager Recital Hall, 7:30 p.m.

North Carolina writer, musician, folklorist and composer Bland Simpson will present an evening of songs, stories and skits based on his Broadway musical Big Muddy and his stories and sketches about rural North Carolina life. Sponsored by Sigma Tau Delta national honor society.

Wednesday - Sunday, October 24 - 28

Department of Performing Arts presents Twelve Angry Jurors

Black Box Theatre, 7:30 p.m. Wednesday - Saturday, and 2 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday

This riveting courtroom drama takes us to the jury room for the deliberation of a seemingly "open and shut" case in which a son is accused of fatally stabbing his father. Tempers get short, and arguments grow heated for these twelve jurors as they re-examine the case, each revealing their own character in the process. Reservations recommended: $10 or Elon ID. For reservations, call 278-5650*.
