

Government on Elections 2004

Class of 2007

Stephen A. Dahlem Jr.
Sophomore Class President

Hello, I'm Stephen A. Dahlem Jr. and I am running for sophomore class president. I am currently the freshman class president and feel as though I represent well the majority of the student body.

Vote for me and I'll continue to work for you.

Sarah Wobbecke
Sophomore Class Vice President

In the past I was class president, editor of the school newspaper and valedictorian. What it comes down to is that I have the experience you want and need to work for you. Sarah Wobbecke- I want what you want.

LaToya Smalls
Sophomore Class Secretary

My name is LaToya Smalls. I am running for sophomore class secretary. Projects I have worked on include Homecoming, Acorn Society, online voting and free food for freshmen.

Jen Budd
Sophomore Class Vice President

As a freshmen class senator, I have had a great term. I would be a positive asset to the sophomore class officers as their vice president. Experience is important. Be represented! Vote Jen Budd for sophomore vice president!

Hilary Corna
Sophomore Class Senator

As senator of the 2007 class, I would enjoy taking part in the political aspects of planning and coordination activities for the benefit of you all. I promise to accurately represent the wants and opinions of our class.

Clifton Johnson
Sophomore Class Senator

Hi I'm Clifton Johnson and I'm running for sophomore class senator. I'm a political science major from Hope Mills, N.C. I recently served as freshmen class senator and I'm looking to serve the class again. Remember to keep Clifton, Clifford, or "Big Red" in mind when voting!

Bethany Massman
Sophomore Class Senator

Besides being a broadcast communications major from Columbus, Ohio, I am also a member of the women's club rugby team and a member of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority. As a member of SGA, I will work toward improving school spirit and building strong bonds between our class and the university as a whole.

Candidates for all offices were given the opportunity to submit photos and 40-word statements. Not all candidates are included.

Academic Council

Lauren Newton
Social Sciences

My name is Lauren Newton and I am a junior political science and international studies major. I am running to represent the social sciences on Academic Council for SGA. I am a member and officer of the NC Student Legislature and Model United Nations. I also work at Campus Recreation as a group exercise instructor and am active in College Republicans. I would appreciate your vote.

Anne Pannell
Social Sciences

My name is Anne Pannell and I am running for Academic Council for the Social Sciences. I am a political science major and plan on attending law school after graduation. I have previous experience on SGA and look forward to serving the student body.

Jennifer Pautz
Humanities

Over the past year I have been serving as the Humanities Chair on SGA and it's been a great experience. I have been given the chance to voice the opinions of students in various committees through SGA. Please vote for me because I hope to have the chance to continue my responsibility representing the humanities department.
