

Page 24 • Thursday, March 16, 2006

ADVERTISING

THE PENDULUM

March 16, 2006 Page 2

The Pend

THE PENDULUM

Volume 31, Issue 20

March 16, 2006

www.elon.edu/pendulum

"If it matters to you, it matters to The Pendulum."

Save a kid ride a...llama??

Matt Lardie/ Photographer

Elonthon Executive Committee members (left to right) sophomore Kaitlin Griffith, senior Mark Bliley, junior Ashley Krueger, sophomore Crystal Grandison, sophomore Lindsey Dombert, sophomore Laura Bouvin, senior Stacey Vial and senior Nuri Abdur-Rauf gathered for a photo at a llama farm off of Huffman Mill Rd.

Annual fundraiser returns for round four

Jessica Frizen
News Editor

Although Elon's biggest fundraiser is 22 days away, the Elonthon Executive Committee started counting down the days in August, when they began training and preparing for 24 hours of activities and entertainment.

The deadline for teams and organizations to sign up is tomorrow, but according to the Elonthon staff, they allow and encourage individuals to sign up any time in the near future, because it's an event students won't want to miss.

"Dance Marathon is an experience you can't put in words; it is life changing," said Hilaire Pickett, External Relations Chair.

The annual fundraiser raises money for the Children's Miracle Network at Duke Children's Hospital in Durham. From noon, April 8 to noon, April 9, participants will stay on their feet as the Executive Team provides the food, entertainment and support.

After students and organizations sign up, the Exec. Team sends out letters to the participant's family and friends, asking them to sponsor the participant.

"Sponsors can do any amount they want," Morale Chair Kaitlin Griffith said. "The goal is $225 for each dancer, and usually they just write a check."

Entertainment Chair Laura Bouvin said it shouldn't be hard for participants to stay on their feet this year, because the team made changes to keep participants energized and awake.

"There's always things to do," she said.

See ELONTHON p. 2

FEATURES

p. 15

Students celebrate St. Patrick's Day traditions

ENTERTAINMENT

p. 18

Learn the best music for your Spring Break trip

SPORTS

p. 24

No break for baseball, they'll face Clemson on Wednesday