

Class of 2012 gathers to commit to Elon's values

Freshmen pledged their commitment to Elon's honor code at the third Call to Honor ceremony, held on Sept. 11

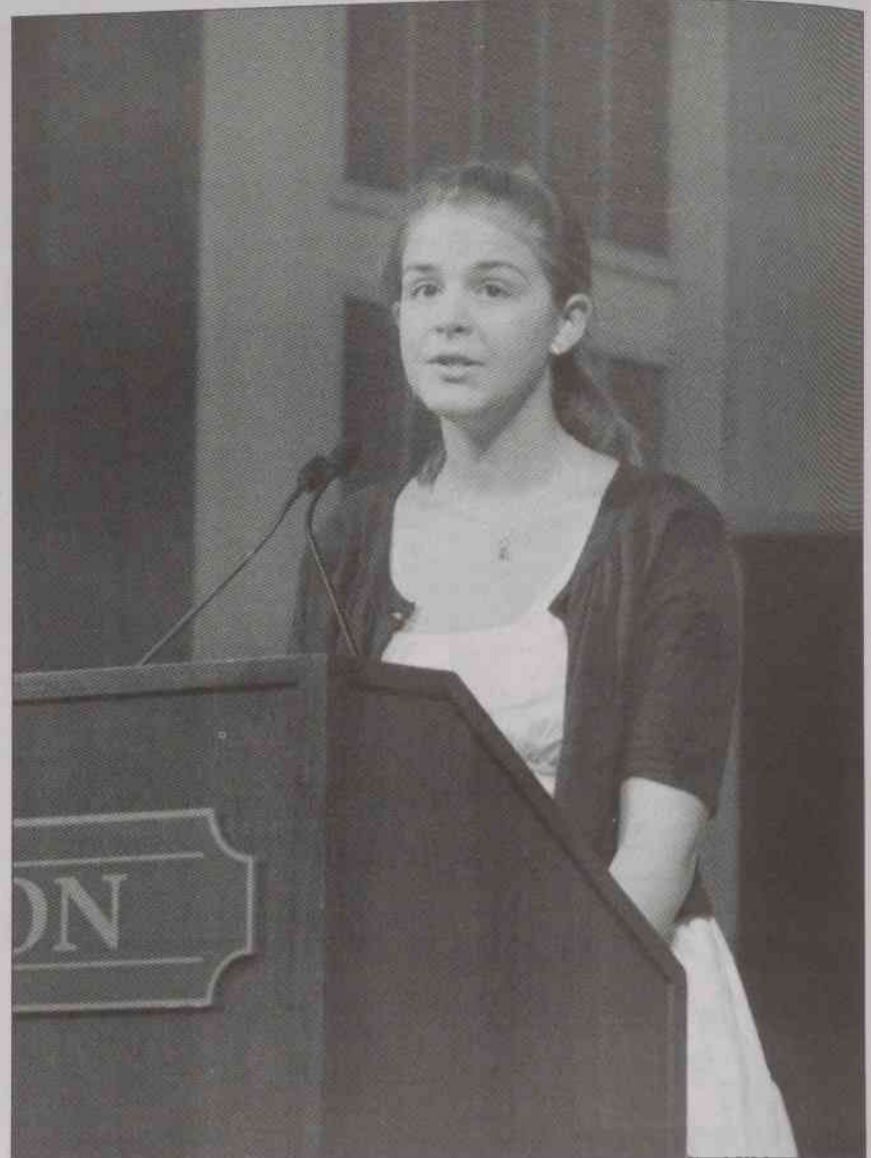

DAVID WELLS | Photo Editor

Members of the Class of 2012 assembled in Alumni Gym on Sept. 11 to pledge their commitment to Elon's honor code. Freshmen received special coins engraved with the word "Honor" during the ceremony.

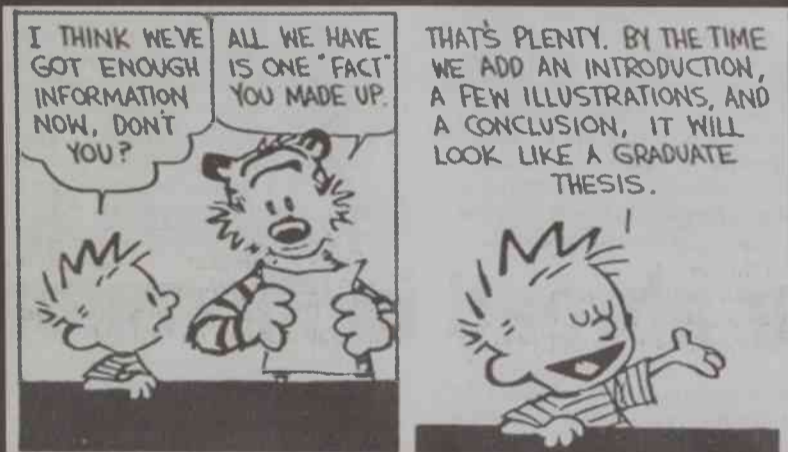

DAVID WELLS | Photo Editor

Matthew Campbell, freshman class treasurer, signed the Call to Honor book. The book contains signatures from alumni dating as far back as 1936.

DAVID WELLS | Photo Editor

Newly-elected freshman class president Rachel Long addressed her fellow classmates on Elon's core value of honesty during the third Call to Honor ceremony. The sophomore, junior and senior class presidents spoke about the university's other core values of respect, responsibility and integrity.

Sometimes, you need to know when to use the Writing Center.

Face-to-face consultation and advice that can make all the difference in any writing assignment.

M-Th 10am-10pm
Fri 10am-4pm
Sun 6pm-10pm

Belk 108

Winter Term Internship in the Office of Admissions

Excellent opportunity to develop skills in public relations, communications, and organization.

Positions Available:

4 Interns

- Travel to major cities with admissions staff
- Make presentations to prospective students and families
- Learn admissions process

Resume deadline: October 6, 2008

Start Date: January 5, 2009

Send resume, cover letter and three listed references to:

Zaire McCoy

Senior Associate Director of Admissions

2700 Campus Box