CRIME REPORT

April 1
COLLINS DRIVE, BURLINGTON
VARIOUS DRUG CHARGES

The Burlington Times-News reported that two local women were arrested on drug charges Friday after the Alamance Narcotics Enforcement Team executed its search warrant for an apartment on Collins Drive.

One woman is facing charges of trafficking heroin, possession with the intent to sell or deliver heroin, maintaining a dwelling to keep/sell a controlled substance and possession of drug paraphernalia. She is being held on $100,000 bond.

The other woman at the scene was arrested and charged with felony possession of heroin and possession of drug paraphernalia. She is currently being held on $10,000 bond.

Members of the team seized 7.6 grams of heroin and various pieces of drug paraphernalia used to make and sell heroin.

April 2
N MANNING AVENUE, ELON
SIMPLE PHYSICAL ASSAULT

According to a Town of Elon Police report, officers responded to a domestic disturbance at a N. Manning Avenue residence. Shane Raymond Short, 46, told officers he and girlfriend Michelle Lynn Symonds, 39, had been in a physical confrontation before she left in Short's car. Officers noted minor injuries to Short's chest and neck.

In addition to Short's bruises and scratches, inside the residence, a television had been knocked down, men's clothes had been thrown outside from the house and Short was wearing a broken watch.

Alcohol was involved according to a report. Symonds was later located by police. She admitted to police Short did not hit her, but grabbed her by the shoulders and push her during the confrontation. She denied assaulting Short, despite video evidence Short provided to police on his cell phone.

Symonds was arrested and has been charged with driving while intoxicated and domestic assault. The case is closed.

April 2
E HAGGARD AVENUE, ELON
CALLS FOR SERVICE/DISTURBANCE

Police were called to an apartment complex on E. Haggard Avenue Saturday afternoon in reference to a disturbance. A Town of Elon Police report says that a female Elon University student (the resident of the apartment) had called because her boyfriend, also a student, refused to leave.

Police found damage to walls and doors of the residence when the young man had punched holes in them. There was no assault involved and the woman chose not to press charges. She requested police escort her boyfriend off the property and tell him not to come back that day. The male subject was taken to the jail without further issues.

Alcohol was involved, but the case is now closed.
