CRIME REPORT

April 5
EAST HAGGARD AVENUE, ELON
FOUND PROPERTY, POSSESSION OF FRAUDULENT ID

An officer responded to a call about property found in the Atkins room of the Koury Athletic Center. While attempting to identify the owner, the officer found and seized a fake driver's license, according to university police.

April 8
UNIVERSITY DRIVE, BURLINGTON
ARMED ROBBERY

A Burlington teen has been charged in connection with an armed robbery in the parking lot of the University Drive Target Friday night. Police are searching for two more suspects, according to the Burlington Times-News.

Police received a call shortly before 9 p.m. The victim had arranged to meet one of the suspects in the Target parking lot to buy a pair of shoes, but one of the two extra people in the car pulled out a gun and took $50 cash from the victim. One suspect was arrested Saturday and is being held in the Alamance County jail on a $25,000 bond.

April 9
OLD N.C. 87, ELON
RESISTING AN ABC INSPECTION,
POSSESSION OF COCAINE

The Burlington Times-News reported that a bartender and customer at Old Ski Lodge were arrested Saturday on separate charges during an Alcohol Beverage Control (ABC) permit premises inspection.

The bartender was charged with resisting an ABC inspection and allowing conduct that violates the controlled substances act. The patron was charged with felony possession of cocaine, misdemeanor possession of drug paraphernalia and resisting a public officer.

The State Bureau of Investigation reported the Alcohol Law Enforcement agent performing the inspection found Joshua Charles Hill, 26, openly in possession of cocaine inside the bar. Bartender Lisa Staley

Hernandez, 52, was not cooperating while officials were arresting Hill. Both are in custody, but bond information has not been released.

April 10
GRAHAM
SHOOTING

The Burlington Times-News reported a Burlington man was shot in the torso by a car chasing him in Graham near Burlington city limits. Police dispatchers said they were told a Chrysler was being chased by another car, and shots were being fired into the car. A Burlington officer encountered the Chrysler stopped at a traffic light where the victim got out of the vehicle and asked the officer to take him to the hospital.

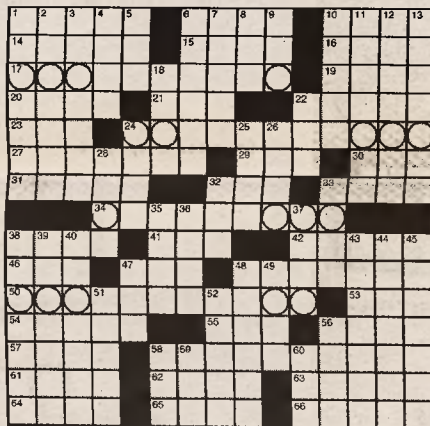

He was transferred from Alamance Regional Medical Center to UNC Hospitals in Chapel Hill to be treated for non-life-threatening injuries. Police are unsure how many people were inside the vehicle shots were fired from. No suspects have been identified at the time of the report.
