Elon University SGA Executive President Kyle Porro didn't pull any praise when describing his successor.

Porro has worked extensively with junior Morgan Bodenarain while they were both on the senate —

I REALLY WANT TO REPRESENT THE STUDENTS, AND I FEEL I HAVE IDEAS THAT CAN REALLY HELP OUR CAMPUS.

most recently this year while she was Class of 2018 vice president. Now, with a couple of weeks left in his term, Porro knows he is handing over the reins to someone who will take the university to new heights.

To him, she is the right person for the job.

It's been less than two years since sophomore guard Dainan Swoope got a scholarship offer from the Elon University men's basketball team.

Since then, he's gone from not even knowing what Elon was to becoming one of the Phoenix's most dependable players and big shot-makers, a quick rise that even surprises him.

"Honestly, I never saw this coming this early," Swoope said. And as the Phoenix heads to the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) Tournament in Charleston, South Carolina, Swoope's late-game heroics almost certainly will be needed
