CRIME REPORT

April 14
SOUTH WILLIAMSON AVENUE
ELON
Objects Found

A Town of Elon resident reported to the Town of Elon Police Department that she had discovered a Visa Debit Card not belonging to her in her backyard. An officer discovered the card belonged to an Elon University student, but their attempts to contact the student were unsuccessful. Wells Fargo Bank, the card's administrator, was contacted and the card canceled. A Wells Fargo Bank representative said the student will be issued a replacement.

April 15
EAST HAGGARD AVENUE
ELON
Vandalism

A Town of Elon Police Officer responded to a call in reference to damaged property at Elon First Baptist Church at 3:20 a.m. April 15 at 621 E. Haggard Ave. The caller told the officer he had heard people laughing outside of the church prior to the loud noise that he presumed to be the sound of a concrete planter being shattered. The planter was not valuable, the caller said, and was used as a doorstep. No cameras were in the area to capture the incident and the case status has been changed to inactive.
