Take．last Wednosday night as a casc in point． On the thirty－five and fourty cent meat slot，we were offered two different varieties of scabrous sausage．For fifty cents that ultimate of culinary dejights，scilzophrenic chopped steak（so called， as the undergraduates say，for it＇s＂so very cooked on the outside，but oh，so raw within．＂）

If nonc of these wore found irresistable，there was the old stand－by，salt soup．How was onc to makc a choice last Wodnesday night？The boy beside me in line asked with a sob in his throat＂Which is less worsc？＂

And the vegetables！Ah！！
They say in Europe that a really great cook is distinquish d by his soups and his vegctables （anyone can cook meat，even an Amcrican），but he is known especially by his vegetables．Last Wednosday night thero were tho ususal powdered potatocs，of coursc，and the usual brackish grocns， the usual cannod applcs，the usual canned apple sausc，the usual canned carrots，and as a special treat，scorched scalloped potatoes．How I wished for a European gourmet to $I$ ass his astutc judgment on thosc vegetables！Cast aspersions on American Institutional cooking，will thoy？Thosc vegetables would shock him！

But I was disappointed．I had boen hoping all day for my speial favorites，Surprisc Pic； or second，Baked fam a la Trichinosc．

At Hunäcュ－Sydnuy Collcge scvoral years ago， the students werc dissatisficd with tho food． Such prosumption！Sioh boorishness！（Prosbyterian School．）They waitcd until cveryonc was served， then with a bloodcurdiing cry they heaved their plates against onc wall and walked out．

Save us from such a thing at Wake Forest， Mr Slater．We have more respect for our wall！ （At least they have a CHUICE at Wakc Forest！）

RAMBIING AT RANDON

Rambling briefly．．．．．．．．．．．．The Board of 胃ections is to be commended for he manner in which it conducted the cloction for Cerolina Conforonce Quecn． the committce was informed at a late date that the clection results and pictu cre duc last wock．It was docided to hold open nominations by ballot with coting donc the following day．Any girl with the aca．icmic requircments was cligible．Hearty congratulations go to the winner，Suc Forguson，of whom we re especially proud since she is a membor of THE CANPUS CRIER staff． To be or not to bo casual is the question．Shall our SG bo a casual，informa nac，or shall it be dignificd and rospoctfully formal？The mattor of dress may have something to do with it．That is，should our SG officials wear the appropriate coats and ties whon appcaring bofore tho Studont Body？Have you opinion？．．．．．．．．．．．．．．．．．．．．．There have beon rumorod comments that some students
Eeel this column is contered around a small group．Do these students go to Slon？In admittence that sometimes rambling topics are subtle and perhaps eve cinted，it takes but a momment of trought to decipher them and to realize ihat they arc of interest（or are intended to bo）to most students in general ricther based on specifics or not．If these apparently＂felt－loft－out＂student ：are to sce the cditor，perhaps they can be included in the column and then IIl probably not fecl that it is centered．Also，if anyone cannot catch on ；o a comment that secms to come from a scrambled mind，the writcr would be mos ielighted to explain，if possiblc．Now that the defense has spoken，remember（ iald so many times before）that ariyone is frec to write to the paper be it in iriticism or otherwise．Then again，perhaps the rambling has been donc in the rong places？ $\qquad$解 mmpus who are kind onc：gh to give students a chance to prepare for finals．．． inat is，a chance TO PRACTICE STUDYING：！！It secms that the week beforc cxams hould be callcd＂pre－exam＂week because so many＂last tests＂are given．（This ould，of course，bc an extra long week running right up to the day before ixams start．）If only we had some sort of＂test－ban＂program so that student． ould not be too saturated from Studying to REVIEW for finals．．．．．．．．．．．．．．．．．．．．．．．
