

For some time, Elon College has provided a great many teachers for the schools of Burlington. This handy well of talent will become dry to Burlington in the future, because there are just too many tempting offers elsewhere for those who are just starting out in life or are supporting a growing family. Only those who are not acceptable to other school systems will be content to take such meager salaries.

In concluding, I would like to wish a Merry Christmas to all, and especially to the children of Burlington. A Happy New Year is also hoped for. Who knows? Maybe next year, the people of Burlington will not hate children.

PROF. ELON COMES THROUGH AGAIN

by Dawn Leland

Somewhere beneath the image-conscious exterior of the Elon inhabitants, there is a constant rumble concerning the mass cheating which prevails. Free-wheeling, apathetic students are attacked and criticized by those who retain some semblance of honesty. Although it may seem an attempt to shift the blame from the students, I shall proceed to attack a sacred cow which trods upon our muddied values, and strike deeper into the reasons for cheating.
