

MINE

[Name Withheld]

Paper money, cashier checks
And copper coins
They buy you everything from
Hamburger to tenderloins.
Tax on your nickels
Pennies and dimes,
But all I want is
What is mine.

Work your guts out,
Try not to starve.
Big man comes along, takes
Your house and your car.
Have to pay double what it's
Worth to have a good time,
But all I want is
What is mine.

Buy now pay later, get
On the monthly installment plan,
But I say keep your pocketbook
Clutched tightly in your hand.
Listen not to the slick words
Of the rich man who sets himself above.
He makes you think you can buy
Everything from salvation to love.
Don't know 'bout you but I'll try not to
Fall into this rat race of money and time
Cause all I want is
What is mine.
