

Things are about the same
On the local scene.
I think you know
What I mean.
Grades are given to
Those who star
But that's alright cause
I know what they really are.
They are the ones that cuss
And throw their food
And get indignant if you
Call them crude.
They're given extra everything,
Even extra time
But all I can ask for is
What is mine.
