AN OBJECTIVE COMMENT BY THE ED.

In the words of George Wallace, "Jumbo Bwana", and welcome to the first edition of the CAMPUS CRIER. To the freshmen and transfer students who so beautify the campus I say welcome to Elon, den of a thousand bias iniquities and the Buckle of the Bible Belt. Let your eyes keep their humor about them vitreously as you progress and perhaps you will see a reason for being, hear? To my comrades in arms: I can but acknowledge your return. BLEAHHHHH!

This year promises to be one of many changes for those who have been here in the past. The first of any note is the food system. Note the change? I seem to remember the administration saying that our parents would receive a questionnaire upon which they could have their say about the type of system they would prefer. Mine are still waiting. Me thinks the administration decided to avert a food riot by issuing that promise and then conveniently forgetting it. This injustice cannot be allowed to slip by unnoticed. Let it be known that there is unrest brewing within the walls of the old oak cask.

School spirit is up this year, thanks to the new students and the Teke men; and the football team occasionally puts up a good show, despite their hideous mascot. The CAMPUS CRIER calls out for a change in the school mascot! For those who are ignorant, the mascot is a fighting christian. Holy sinners! What irony! For christians there is surely alot of drinking, smoking, dancing
