

New Members Added To Voice Staff

Fourteen new members were added to the staff of the Fayetteville State College paper for the year 1948 and 1949. These persons represent three different states: North Carolina, Virginia and Kentucky.

The new staff members are as follows:

Mr. Willie B. Riddick, a native of Portsmouth, Virginia became Business Manager of the "Voice."

Associate editors are: Miss Thelma Harris, Pinehurst; Miss Thelma Watkins, Smithfield; Mr. James McDonald of Fayetteville, and Mr. Edward N. Taylor of Fayetteville.

New reporters are: Miss Alena Stokes, Fairmont; Miss Margaret Patterson, Fayetteville; Miss Bessie Pridgeon, Goldsboro; Miss Irene Walls, Goldsboro, and Miss Lottie Munn of Lumberton.

Mr. William H. Harrison of Rocky Mount is the new Circulation Manager.

Added to the staff as typist are: Mr. Charles Black, Lexington, Kentucky and Miss Thelma Dickens of Tarboro.

Miss Bertha E. Barnes who last year was an associate editor is now Editor-in-Chief.

Mr. Zebulin Gordon has been added as exchange editor.

The staff this year intends to better last year's performance in keeping the readers up to date on the latest happenings.

Professor Coppage Speaks Before Alumni Group

The Fayetteville State Teachers College Alumni of New York City presented as guest speaker at its monthly meeting held on October 13, 1948, Professor James E. Coppage who spoke on "State Teachers College, Its Program and Future Hopes." More than seventy-five graduates and former students make up this organization. In his discourse Mr. Coppage urged the group to develop themselves into a strong organization, to support our athletic scholarships and, as occasion warrants, to sponsor our choral organizations in New York City.

The club officers are Edward P. Hicks, president. Lonnie A. Corbett, vice president, and Gladys P. Hicks, secretary.

HOMECOMING

The whistle blows, the ball is kicked,
And down the field it soars.
Each team resolved it won't be licked,
Despite the rival roars.

To make the rules of sportmanship
Officials are put there,
To see that every gain that's made
Is absolutely fair.

But here's something tragic,
A thing that's very bad,
Half the crowd that leaves the game,
Most surely will be sad.

But someone has to lose, you know,
And that is plain to see,
But it won't be, by any chance,
Our dear old F. T. C.
