Tough Spring
Schedule

Fayetteville State College track team is currently preparing for its 1966 season which officially opens Tuesday, March 22, at Fayetteville. Coach Harold L. Scott is optimistic regarding the team's prospect for the season, saying: "Though only 10 veterans remain from last year's cinder crop, the Broncos' track outlook is bright." Returning will be William Conway who placed third in 880 yard in last season's CIAA championship meet. Other returning veterans include sprinters Howard Hopkins, James Gardin, Ricardo Brown, James Moore and Henry Solomon; distance runners Walter Murphy and James Keys; and quarter milers Delano Dubinson and George Sherman. Each of the veterans should improve in this year's competition.

"This year's group of newcomers looks more promising than any group to come before them. If they can live up to expectations, our team performance will definitely improve," Coach Scott predicts.

Among the newcomers are sprinters Wilson Jackson, Wendell Smith, Jerry Bell, Harry Bennett, and Jesse Greene; broad jumpers Henry Terrell and Charles Baker; triple jumper Henry Terrell; half milers Edward Winfield and Frank Williamson; quarter milers Farris Fulford, Oscar Scott and Ralph Falwell; weightmen Ricardo Dickson and Windell Hicks; milers Sidney Williams and Franklin Reaves.

Howard Hopkins and Delano Dubinson are the co-captains of Fayetteville State's 1966 outdoor track team. Hopkins, a junior majoring in physical education, is a graduate of Berry O'Kelly in Raleigh, N. C. Dubinson, also a junior and majoring in mathematics, is a graduate of Boys High in Brooklyn, N. Y. We are expecting them to carry the team through another eventful season.

Tennis Outlook

Coach Page Saunders and his netters are looking forward to a successful tennis season this year. The team of last year had a 5-6 won-lost record.

Returning players from that team include Wilbert Wilson, a senior from Washington, D. C.; William Westfield, a senior from Orange, N. J.; and Wesley Allen, a senior from Fayetteville. Coach Saunders expects some additional netters for the upcoming season. The veterans of last year and the additional players this year are sure to be in the running for CIAA honors.

Baseball ??

Yes, Fayetteville State College will field a baseball team this season. Inexperience will plague Coach Robinson again. A number of boys from last year's team are not back for this season. A large percentage of the team will be composed of freshmen. The success of the team will depend upon these neophytes.

Let's look forward to a successful team. Come out and support the Broncos, win or lose.

Intramural News

Dr. Jack F. Davis, intramural director, has announced that volleyball, tennis, and softball are the remaining sports for the intramural season. There is a possibility that these activities will be in progress at the same time.
