CHANCELLOR SPEAKS AT FT. BRAGG FOR KING CEREMONY

Dr. Charles "A" Lyons, Jr., Chancellor of Fayetteville State University, was the main speaker January 15, for the late Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. memorial service held at the 82nd Airborne Division Memorial Chapel at Fort Bragg.

Speaking before a packed audience of civilian and military personnel, Dr. Lyons spoke from a subject entitled

"A Challenge For The Future."

The Chancellor was introduced by Chaplain Aiken and LTC D. E. Williford, gave a historical note on the life of the late civil-rights leader, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Later in the evening, a movie on the life of the Atlanta-born leader, "Montgomery to Memphis" was shown.

DID YOU KNOW..?

...That all FSU students must present a valid ID Card in order to be admitted to basketball games at the Cumberland County Arena.

...That the ID Card is good for one admission per night and that you are not permitted to leave the arena until the game has ended.

...That the auditorium provides all available facilities for its patrons inside the arena area: snack bar, telephone, toilet facilities, etc.

...That since students must pay an athletic fee at registration, all FSU faculty and staff and-or outside patrons must also purchase a ticket, present a CIAA pass or a FSU Faculty-Staff purchased pass.

READY FOR 1976—It may be winter but you can't tell it by shapely Fayetteville State University coed Pam McKoy as she wishes a happy bi-centennial year. A native of Leland, N.C. (near Wilmington) Pam is a junior intermediate education major and plans to teach. Students will definitely pay attention to this future teacher.
