

Remember these nutty guys? You know, the one's that walk around and tell you that you're going to Hell.

The semester just wouldn't be the same without them. What crazy things will they come up with next year?

“As a teacher in New York City, my classroom is held together by need. The children need me. I need them. We need each other.”

IF YOU HAVEN'T NOTICED

The Voice is now a Newsmagazine. We like the new layout, but then again we are biased. Tell us what you think. Is a magazine look better than a traditional newspaper look for Fayetteville State?
