

It's spring and the warm weather is a great way to enjoy the little bit of time we get to ourselves. The end of the semester is quickly approaching, which means long hours in the library and nonstop test and papers. During "crunch time" I like to keep this quote in mind by George Washington Carver:

"Education is the key to unlock the golden door of freedom."

Remember that the best is yet to come and as long as we advance our education every day, we will soon become and remain the BEST!!

Letter to the editor

To The Voice Staff,

While your write-up "US Justices Review Gay Marriage" in The Voice (April 3, 2013) was an exemplary example of neutrality in journalism, I must expand on the description given on Amendment One.

According to the General Assembly of North Carolina, Senate Bill 514 says, "Marriage between one man and one woman is the only domestic legal union that shall be valid or recognized in this State."

By using the phrase "only domestic legal union", North Carolinians voted against me to have a wonderful marriage to a nice man. They voted against me to have a "separate but equal" civil union. They even voted against me to have the inferior domestic partnership.

I wanted the readers to understand the true Amendment One and how devastating hatred and ignorance can be on Gay American Citizens.

Thank you
Cameron Dwayne Bass
